1961 Warrior

In appreciation of his help, cheerfulness, and friendly interest, the class affectionately dedicates to "Walt" Cowin its 1961 edition of the Stillwater Central School WARRIOR.

Foreword

This yearbook is the result of our many wonderful experiences in the past years. We of the yearbook staff not only wish this yearbook to function as a record of "who did what" during these years, but also to be a true diary of all the years' happenings.

It is hoped that as you thumb through the yearbook you will visualize some of the ideas of our staff. We hope you will often turn to this WARRIOR. You may not need a reminder of high school days, but this volume will keep your memory vivid.

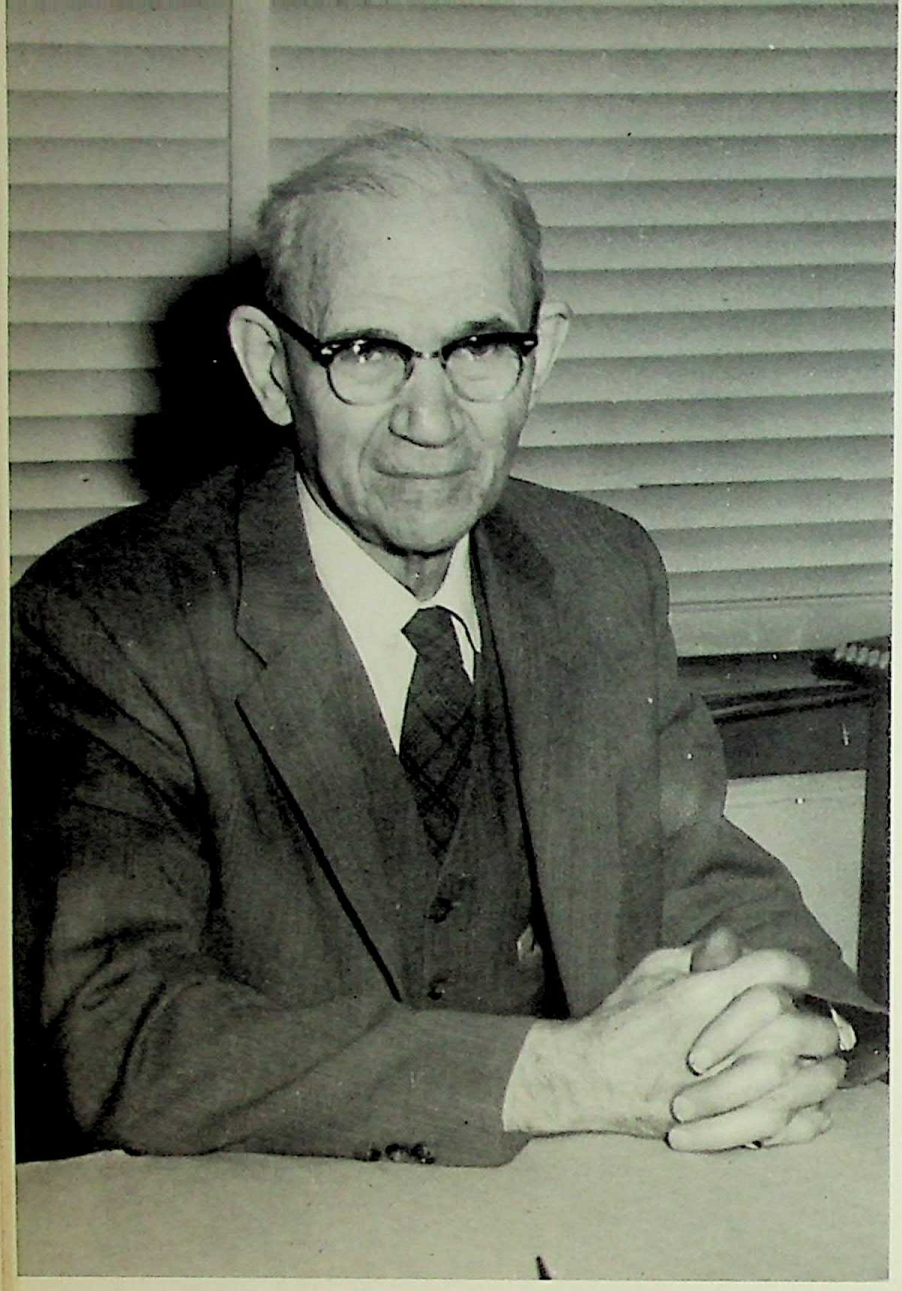

On behalf of the staff I would like also to express sincere appreciation for the co-operation given us by each faculty member and each student.

Superintendent's Message

"I would like to commend to you the following by Edwin S. Starbuck, 'Not only the great live richly. Every man's life is inspiring if carried on sincerely, and every man's story is worth hearing if properly told."

Sincerely yours,

Rodney O. Winans

Rodney O. Winans

We, the class of 1961, would like to join with the hundreds of teachers and thousands of students to say thank you, Mr. Winans, for your inspiring leadership for nearly 40 years as District Superintendent.

Your message to us is an inspiring one and you have given unstintingly of yourself to provide a philosophy and an example of dedicated service.

Principal's Message

MR. ROBERT O. SEAMAN,
Supervising Principal

You the class of 1961 have gained another step toward your goal. You have learned that this success is made up of many things. Your first faltering steps were aided by your parents; then others aided--teachers, church and community. As you continue walking life's path you will be stronger and wiser. With your determination and God's help we are all confident that each of you will attain his goal.

Along with many others may I add my personal congratulations and best wishes.

Class History

Kindergarten began for the class of 1961 in September, 1948; with approximately fifty students enrolled. We were the start of the war baby boom which created many school and housing problems.

Our grade school years were happy ones although we were crowded for space. Many of us will never forget attending school in the McNanny drugstore, the Stillwater United Church, the school gymnasuim, and the bus garage.

Junior High School saw us adjusting to changing classes, homework, and taking part in extra-curricular activities.

As Freshmen we had the privilege of starting the year in our long-awaited new school. We had our first school picnic this year also.

In our Sophomore year we took part in many activities. We held dances and food sales to raise money for our Washington trip.

As Juniors we sold refreshments at basketball games. We received our class rings Christmas Eve, 1959. We also put on the class day dinner for the Seniors. The Junior Ball was highlighted with the crowning of a queen and her court.

Time has flown and we found ourselves in the midst of activities in our Senior year. We have sold magazines, candy, and refreshments at football games. The class of 1961 is very proud that this year the Stillwater Warriors won the Washington County Football Championship. The Senior Class play "A Date With Judy" will never be forgotten throughout the years.

Graduation in June will not be the end, but rather, the beginning. It is a key which opens the door to new horizons.

We bid farewell to these high school days, but not our search for knowledge, keeping always in mind--"When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up these childish ways. For now we see in the mirror dimly; but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood, "(1 Corinthians 13). Broad is the gate before us; wide is the path at our feet--we tread it now. Yesterday's valley of sorrows no longer dismay us; nor do tomorrow's mountains of woe make us apprehensive. The way is at our feet, and we greet each new day with joy.

Tea Leaves

As I drink the last drops of tea and begin reading the tea leaves I see Margie Baker trying to rush her very friendly neighbor, reformed bachelor John Osmond, out the back door as her husband, Bill Brooking, enters the front - home from a hard day's work at the brewery.

As I look a little more closely, I seem to be on the second floor of the Seaman Memorial Hospital in Stillwater, now a thriving metropolis. At first I thought I was seeing double, but, no - it is both Donna and Deanna Briggs, head nurses at the hospital. They are entering the operating room where Dr. William Brundiage is operating on a familiar face. Yes, it's Clarence Dobbert! He has had a slight accident. As I saw it, Clarence was at a Broadway play "A Date With Judy," starring one of our old friends, Karen Hansen, who has come a long way from Stillwater to Broadway. At the play, Clarence messed up Sara Jane Neilson's hair. She turned around in complete anger and slapped him, breaking his glasses. Clarence is now having some glass removed from his "mustache."

As I glance further into the tea leaves, I see Judy Ford who is now a successful beautician in New York City where she is practicing her profession in the Morgue, making up the heads of people who are "out of this world."

Well, here we are at the White House. Does that sign say "Eileen Sullvan," secretary to President Kennedy? Not our little Eileen! I don't know how such a little girl could get such a big job.

Well, it has finally happened! Marion Webster and Barbara Talmadge have their own TV program. It is called "The Best of Marion and Barbara" and if I know Marion and Barbara it will be the best of them.

As I go a little farther I seem to be at the Hudson River Drive-In, which is now owned by Jim Peacock. He has certainly come a long way from picking up garbage to being owner.

As I enter the Stillwater gym, it looks like Ronnie Carr finally got his wish and is following in the footsteps of his idol, Coach Noonan. On the other side of the gym is Dorothy Duffney, who has taken over the position as girls' coach.

Our tea leaves tell us Paul Shea has made some changes! He is now president of the club "No Drinkers or Smokers - Just Sportsmen." Dick Goverski must have changed some too since he's vice-president of the club.

Dorothy Phillips, Pat Phillips, Sandra Kelly and Jean Kussius are coming into the picture. They are all active members of club "Marry a Millionaire!" or "Do You Know How to Knit!" (It comes in handy).

The atmosphere is changing. I seem to be watching a TV program, "Our Serious World," starring Emil Nass and Floyd Pohl.

Now I enter Saratoga Ave. where Beverly Parker and her husband have opened their own Pizza Shop.

My tea leaves take me to a concert. That girl singing is Dawn McChesney. My program says she is making her debut. She sounds as though she is making her exit.

Why, there is Barbara Banks and Colin Cowin, it looks as though they are taking the baby out for a walk in the park. And see who is behind them, Larry Poitras in a policeman's uniform! I always knew he would eventually have something to do with the police, but not this way!

As I continue my travels into Switzerland I see Susan Conley on the Olympic Ski Team. She wasn't going to let a few broken bones hold her back from success.

Well, here enters Ed Gemmitti, Earl Decker and Ed Krasuski into the picture. They are all in uniforms. They seem to be leaving on a train. Oh, wait a minute here come the brides-to-be. Jeannine Mellon for Mr. Gemmitti, Diane Moore for Mr. Decker, and Kay Tillapaugh for Mr. Krasuki.

My tea leaves tell me Larry Estill has started a business of his own, collecting and fixing old parts for Model-A trucks.

My tea leaves show that Tim Campbell has become a forest ranger. As I remember, his favorite place always WAS the woods!

I now catch Ellen Canary catching up on her knitting. She looks puzzled about which color booties to knit. I just hope it's a baby and not a bird.

Clara Price and Eugenie Pokrandt are both models in New York. As I see it they are doing well except for a little trouble getting along with their employer, Herb Cowin, who seems to have different ideas about modeling.

As we go a little further into our tea leaves we come across Leona Tromans who is in a large auditorium giving a speech on how to be beautiful in ninety-nine easy lessons.

Donna Snow and Marlene Smodell have come a long way. They are giving Betty Crocker a little competition.

I see Ed Brooks has settled down to the married life, but I wonder if he'll ever get used to it.

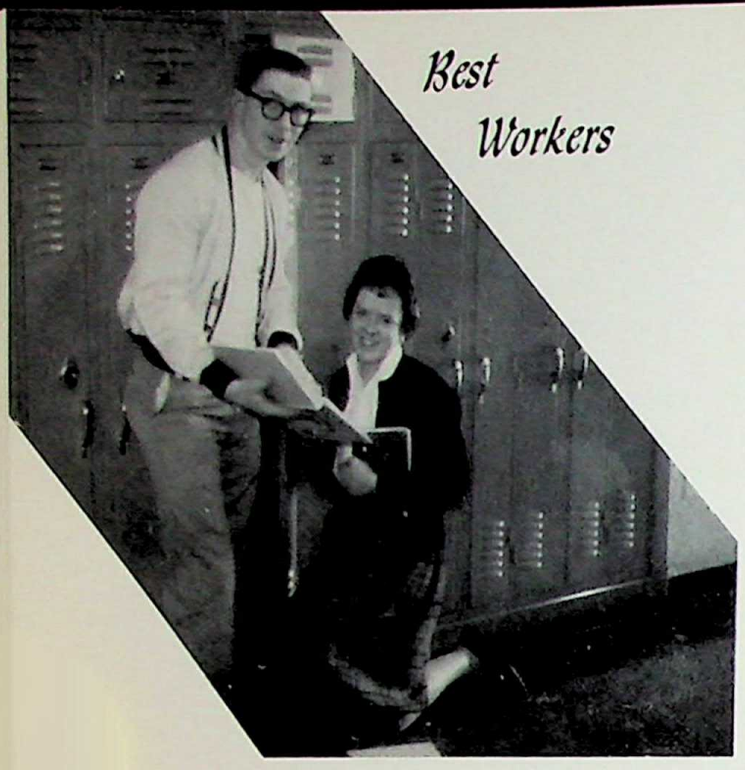

I see an airplane flying overhead. As it lands, the first person to get out is Beverly Rivers, the stewardess. The last person to get off is Ray Quackenbush, the pilot. Both Ray and Beverly have come up through the years.

We are now in Albany. It looks as though Joan D'Avignon and Jo Grignon have made their positions in the State Office Building.

This is my last cup of tea and I have one tea leaf left. In it I see Sidney Wheeler in New York City, where he has started a club called "The Be Friendly Club."

1960
Washington County Champs

We Stillwater Warriors, chosen underdogs of the Washington County League for 1960, set a record at the start of the season by winning four games in a row.

After defeating Hoosick Falls, we beat our arch-rival, Cambridge, for the first time in eleven-man football. In this second game hard-running back, Bill Brooking, scored 18 of the 19 points to shut out the championship runners-up of the previous year. Fleet-footed Ron Carr ran a punt back 65 yards for a TD against St. Peter's. Gary McClements scored a second TD on a pass from Larry McDonald.

Stillwater showed its depth in the backfield against Greenwich when Bill Deuel and Dick Goverski replaced halfbacks Brooking and Carr, and each scored a TD to top off the fourth win for the self-made Stillwater Warriors. Next, although our line showed outstanding defensive playing, Schuylerville, the winner of its league the year before, broke our winning streak.

Ron Carr made an outstanding run against Salem of almost 60 yards and also scored on a remarkable run as Jim Peacock exemplified the duties of a pulling guard when he threw a key block to break Ron loose. Clarence Dobbert also scored on a pass from McDonald. Paul Shea, unable to participate because of injury in the Schuylerville game, was presented a football autographed by Coaches Noonan, Zammiello, and Boyd, and the team.

At the decisive game for the championship the whole team was on edge as Fort Edward looked for an upset. Brooking scored on a six-yard plunge with the help of big left tackle, Larry Estill, who did a terrific job all year long. The TD was set up by Paul Shea, one of the hardest running fullbacks to ever play this position for Stillwater. Our defensemen showed their ability as they held the Forts scoreless. In this last quarter, we scored again to wind up the 1960 season as Washington County League Football Champions.

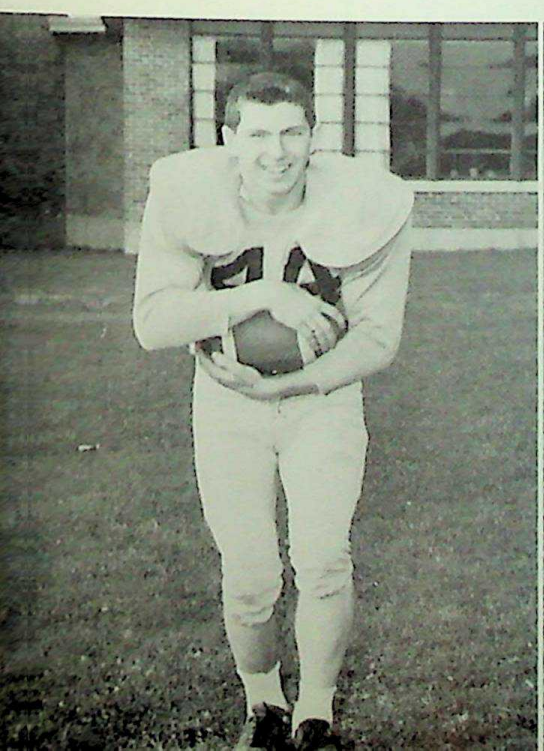

The overnight trip to Littleton, New Hampshire, was the first one of its kind that we had ever experienced and the score showed as much.

Varsity Basketball

The 1960-61 basketball campaign started off with four lettermen returning - Co-captains Ron Carr, Herb Cowin, Dick Goverski, and Larry Estill. Bill Deuel came to us from LaSalle. Up from the J. V. squad came juniors Larry McDonald, Bill Carley, Bob Carr, and John Morris. Senior Paul Shea, and Junior Gary McClements, rounded the remainder of the squad.

This year the Washington County League was well-matched. We lost three games, two to Salem, and one to Hoosick Falls, and represented class D in the sectionals. Our team was very well-balanced and morale was high throughout the year.

Junior Varsity Basketball

This year the Junior Varsity team of the Stillwater Central School started the season with a green team composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores. The first five players from last year's team whose record was 17 wins and one loss were playing on the Varsity team.

The team had a fine record starting the season with a 13 win and five loss record. The only team to beat us twice was Greenwich. In our five losses, four were decided by one point, and three ran into overtime periods.

Track Team

In this, our second year of participation in track and field sports, we showed some improvement over our first year and confidently expect improvement.

Coach Boyd says, "We have the potential, and with good spirit and hard work, there isn't any reason why we cannot be as successful in track as we are in the other sports."

Outstanding on this year's small squad were Paul Shea in the dashes, John Osmond in the weights, and Clarence Dobbert in the High jump.
