“The Way We Were”

Memories light the corners of my mind.
Misty water color memories,
Of the way we were.
Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind,
Smiles we gave to one another
For the way we were.
Can it be that it was all so simple then,
Or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all again,
Tell me, would we? Could we?
Memories may be beautiful, and yet,
What's too painful to remember,
We simply choose to forget.
So it's the laughter we will remember,
Whenever we remember the way we were,
The way we were.

Stillwater Central School
Stillwater, New York

Foreword

We have been told that these are the best years of our lives. Perhaps. If they are, the best years of our lives – the years of carefree days, friendships, discoveries, and growth – have also been clouded by our awareness of political turmoil and economic instability.

We have often hidden in the carefree dreams and joys of youth as one seeks the relief of summer after a long winter and even now cling to the peaceful and joyous memories of school days, but we are not now, nor never were, unaware of the challenges posed by the world surrounding us. We look to our memories, our pasts, with feelings of nostalgia and even regret for their passing, but we anticipate the future with optimism and hope that our years at Stillwater Central School have prepared us for the challenges that lie ahead.

Hoosick Falls- Stillwater tie

The big play in the third stanza came when the Stillwater defensive line put a big pass rush on Hoosiers' quarterback Carknard to force a fumble and the Warriors' Kardash recovered on the Falls' 14 yard line. Rugged fullback Boucher work-horsed his way to the one yard line and then kicked out around right end to score the T.D. with Greg Daigle throwing the key block. The extra point play, which failed, was called back as a result of an interference penalty but again Hoosick Falls stiffened and stopped what proved to be an extremely important extra point attempt. The third period ended with the Warriors leading 14-8.

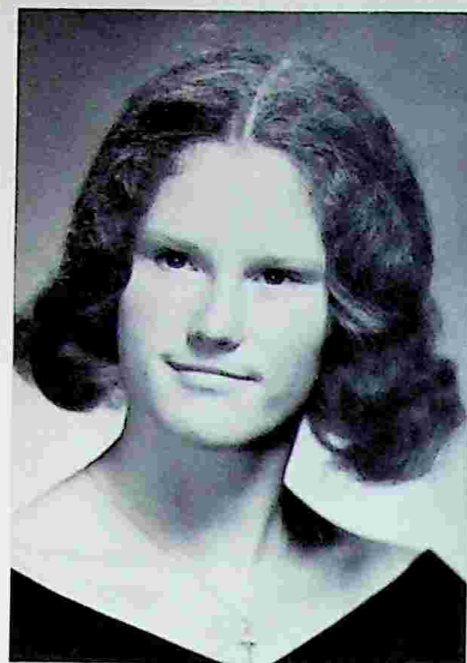

The Hoosiers, unable to sustain any offensive drive throughout most of the contest, finally got it going with about seven minutes left in the contest. Carknard engineered a drive which started on his own 20 yard line. The Warrior secondary, led by Ray Callahan, Greg Daigle and Bochette made three consecutive key defensive plays before the big completion to Greenwood at the two. With nine seconds left, Wyman made his heroic touchdown from three yards out. The Warrior defense held on the extra point attempt to salvage a tie and remain very much in contention in the tight Southern Division.

Mark Burdyl in Who's Who

STILLWATER — Mark Burdyl, a senior at Stillwater Central School, has been named to the eighth annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from more than 20,000 public, private and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized each year for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in these editions. Fewer than 3 per cent of the junior and senior class students nation-wide are awarded such recognition.

Burdyl is vice-president of the student council and a member of the National Honor Society and Drama Club. He plans to attend Cornell University or Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he will major in architecture.

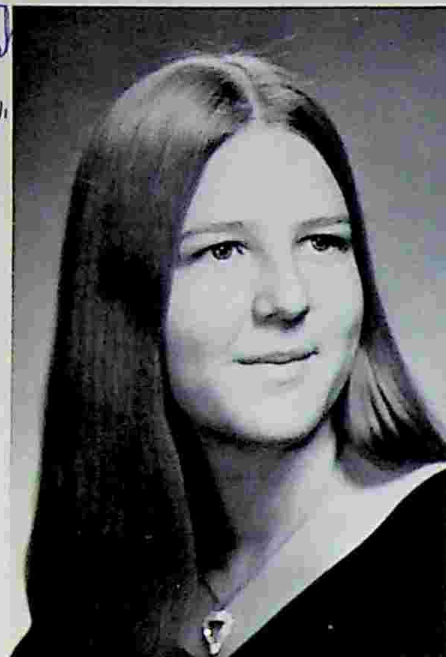

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Burdyl of R.D. 1, Stillwater.

Dad owes life to two children

Son, daughter rescue him from home pool, revive him

By HAL SHEEHAN
Mechanicville Bureau Chief

STILLWATER — Floyd "Red" Wood of Stillwater is alive today because of his family. His wife Mari, daughter Paula and son Rick combined to save his life after he had fallen into an in-ground swimming pool. He is a non-swimmer.

It was a typical Sunday afternoon a few days ago, and "Red" was vacuuming the pool, preparing to put it "under wraps" for the winter. His wife, daughter and son were in the house.

At 2 p.m., the handle of the vacuum cleaner, used in cleaning the pool underwater, broke, and Floyd lost his balance and plunged into the deep end of the pool.

Fortunately, Mrs. Wood went outside to call her husband for a small household task. Seeing him lying on the bottom of the pool, she screamed and called her son Rick, a Boy Scout in Troop 35 of Stillwater.

Rick saw his father's plight and called for his sister Paula, who has a good knowledge of artificial respiration. Both children leaped into the pool and hauled their father to the side, where Mrs. Wood assisted in getting the unconscious man up and onto the ground.

Paula started artificial respiration and continued until a neighbor, John Pritchard, arrived on the scene. He took over the task and stayed with it until Wood came around.

The Stillwater Emergency Squad took Wood to Leonard Hospital, Troy, where he has been until today.

Quick action by the two children is credited with averting a tragedy. Paula is a senior at Stillwater Central School and Rick is a sixth grader, a former Cub Scout of Pack 35 and one of the newest Boy Scouts in Troop 35. Both Pack and Troop 35 are sponsored by Earl J. Manning Post 490, American Legion, of Stillwater.

Rick will get a certificate of merit from the local council and his name is being submitted for a medal of merit from the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America. The action of Paula also has been highly commended.

HE'S OUR DAD — Quick emergency action by these two children of Floyd "Red" Wood of Stillwater saved Wood's life recently when he fell into an in-ground swimming pool while winterizing it. Wood, a non-swimmer, was lying in the bottom of the pool when the two children, Rick on the left and Paula, right rescued him and used artificial respiration to save his life.

Varsity Club

"I enjoy making decisions concerning athletes' actions." . . . "I'm really looking forward to the banquet at the end of the year." . . . "The initiation is always a riot."

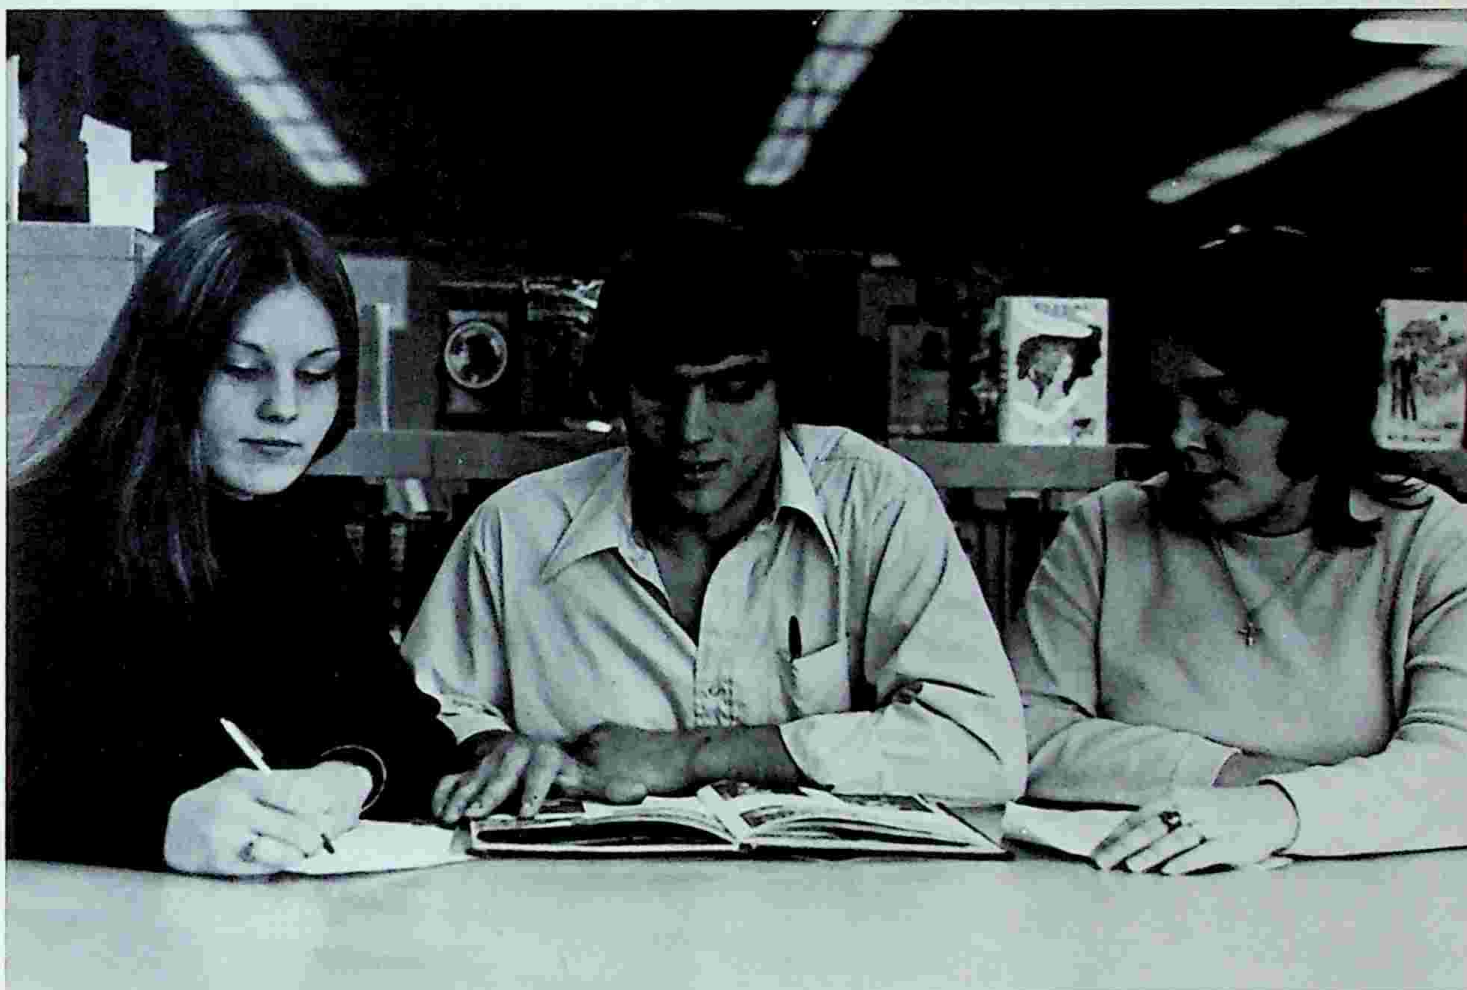

Parents' Recognition Night

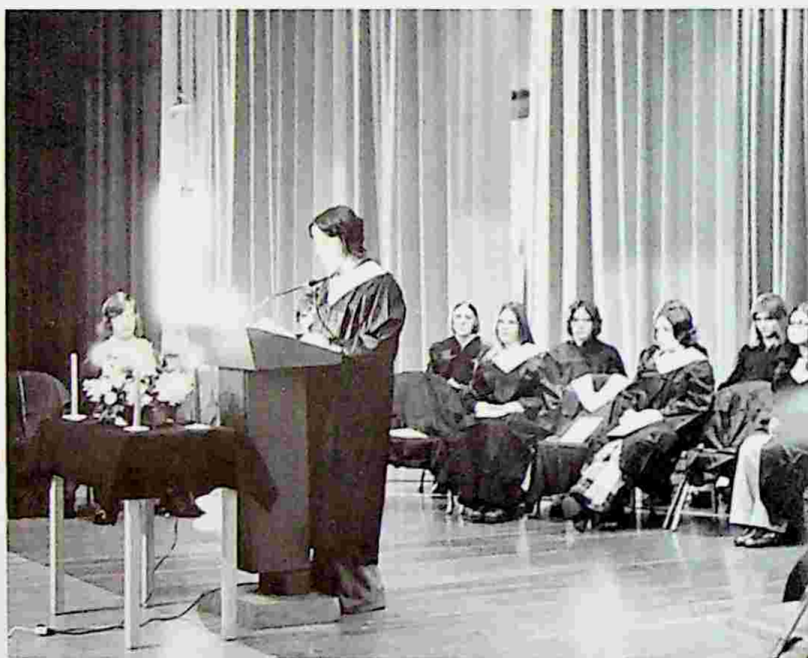

Activities

Unity . . .

National Honor Society

"It's an incentive to keep my average up." ... "It makes me feel good because my parents are proud of me." ... "I'd like to see the group get more recognition." ... "I felt like I had really accomplished something when I was inducted."

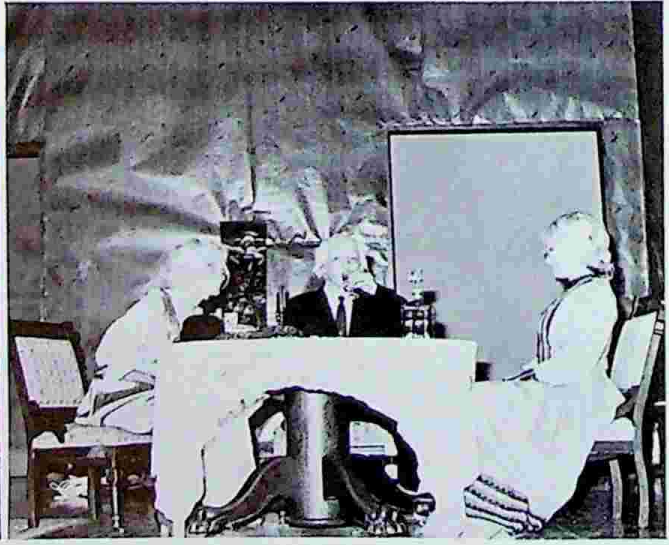

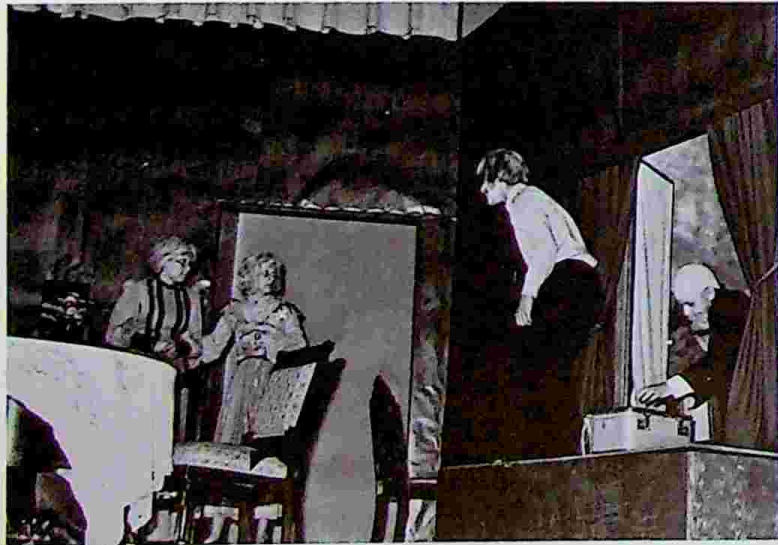

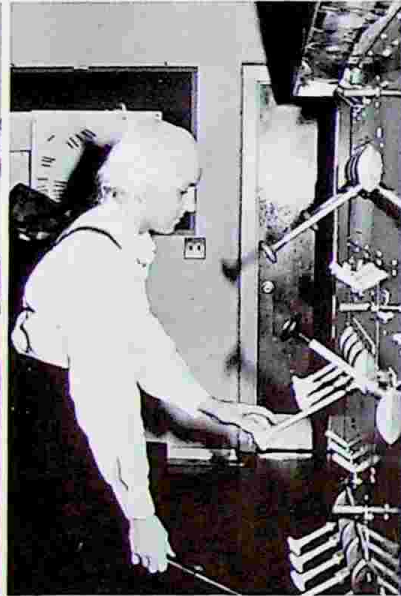

French Club

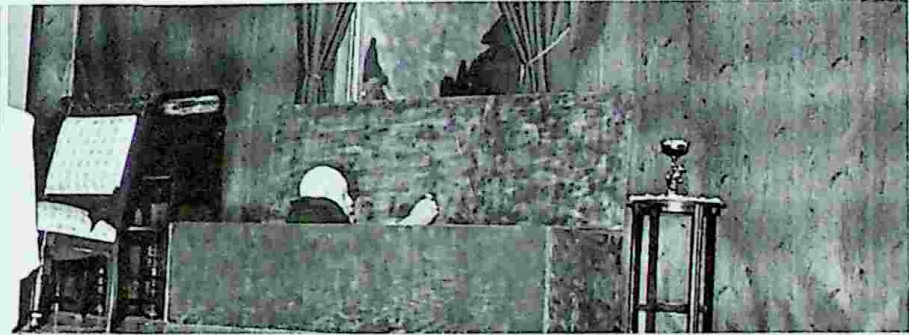

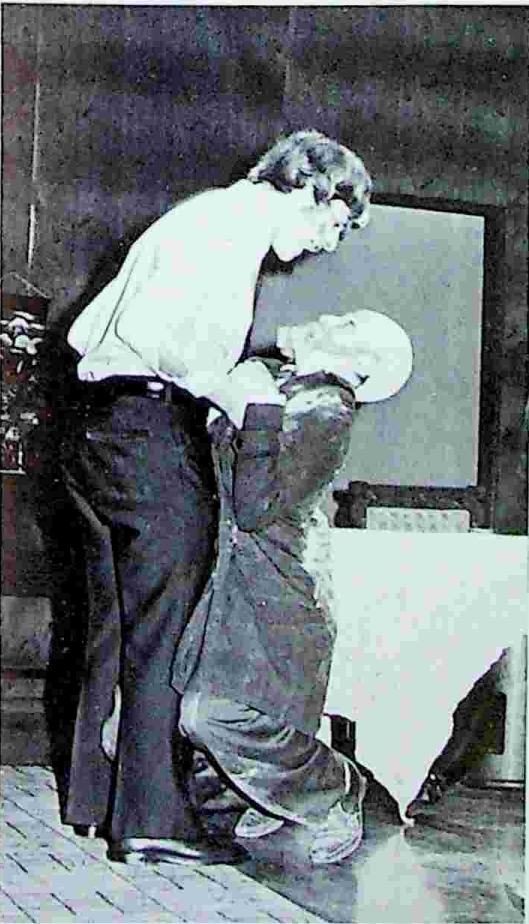

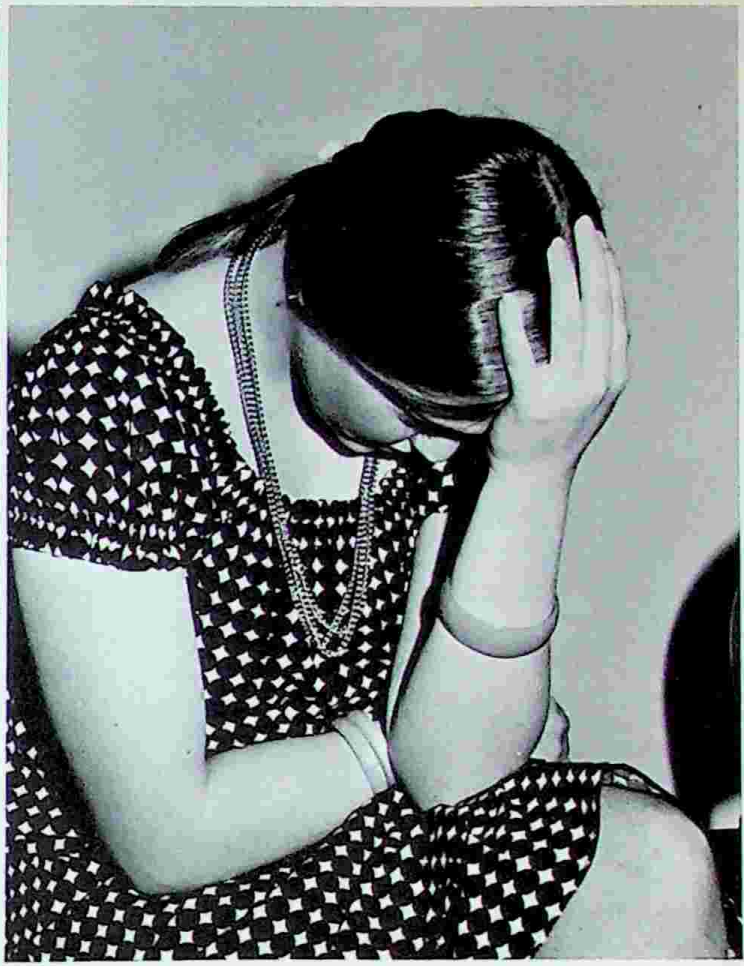

"I joined because I wanted to increase my understanding of French and the French culture." . . . "The French Club is concerned with letting students know that French is 'alive'." . . . "I guess selling all of the candy bars will seem worth it when we award our scholarship." . . . "Mardi Gras was a lot of work, but everyone really had a good time."

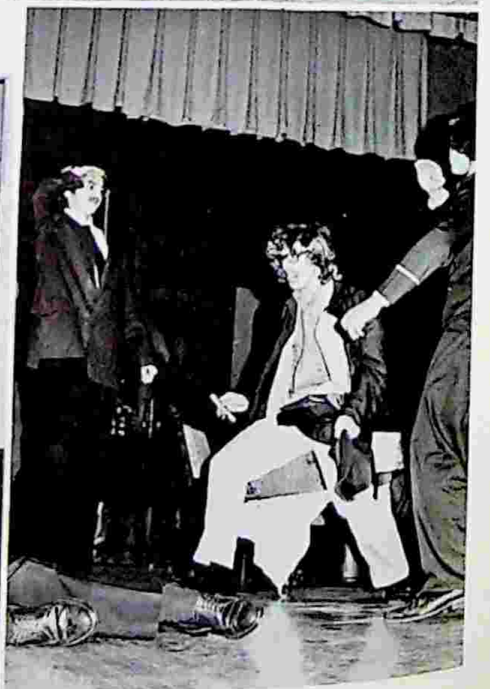

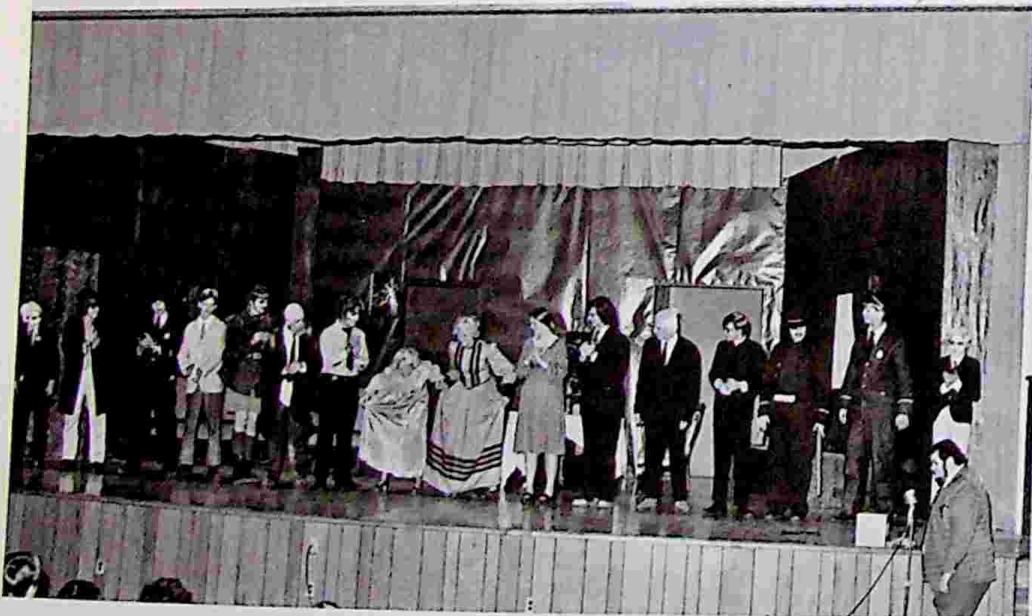

Drama Club

"I'll never forget the tense and mixed emotions over tryouts."... "When Mr. Baker disapproved, we had to work extra hard and long in rehearsals."... "After awhile I felt like the school was my second home."... "I always wanted to spend my weekends building sets."... "When you appear on stage for the first time, you get this empty feeling inside."... "Our reward for working so hard was a very successful play."

Band

"I learned how to read music at last!" ... "I hate having to eat lunch in a hurry." ... "It's interesting, enjoyable, and fun." ... "The sweaters, pins, and letters are really special." ... "I enjoy the satisfaction of knowing we gave a good concert."

Chorus

"I love to sing." . . . "It's given me a chance to make new friends." . . . "Even the practices are fun." . . . "I like the music we do." . . . "It's a lot of work."

Twirlers

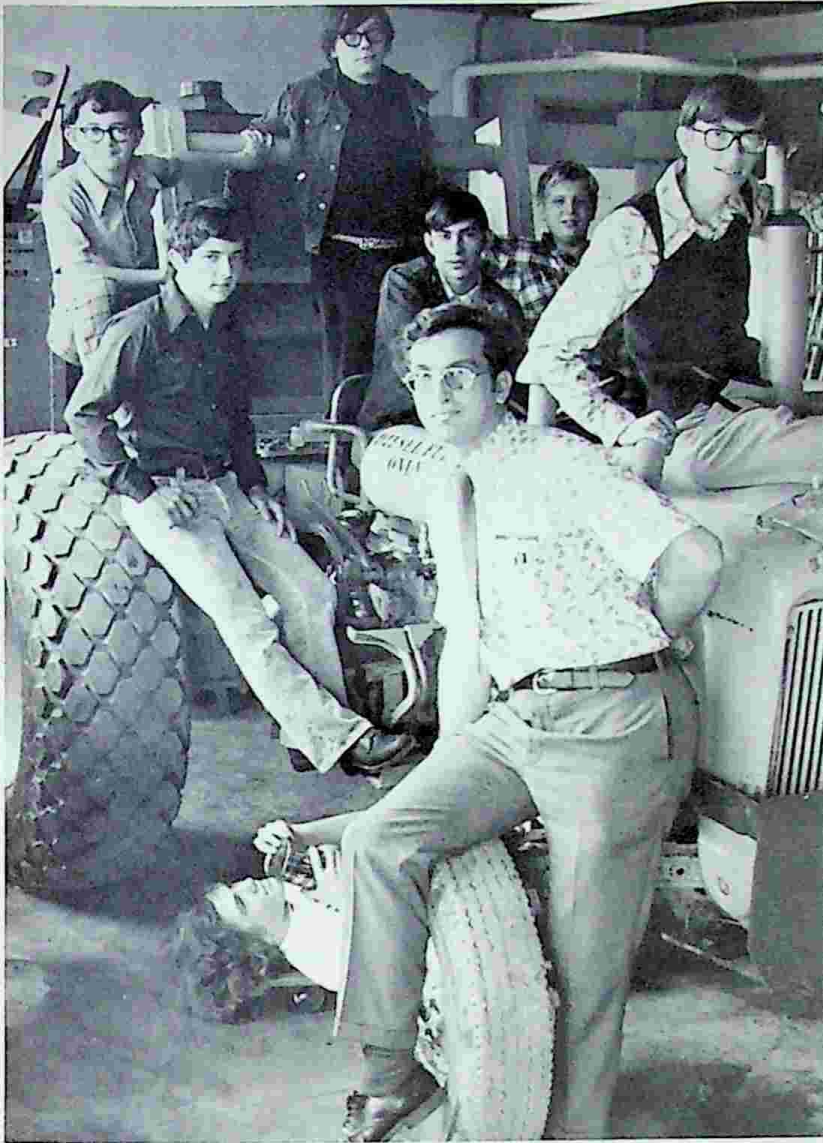

"I like going to different towns to march in the parades." . . . "We're trying to make a special routine for our bicentennial." . . . "I love being able to do tricks with my baton." . . . "I like to evaluate other twirlers I see."

Color Guard

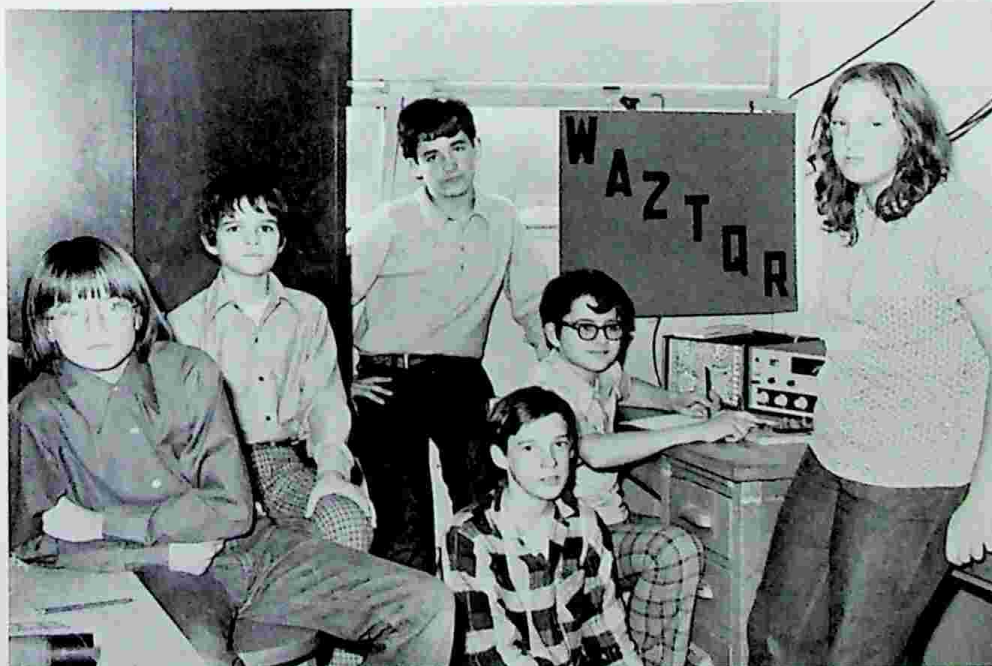

"The practices are sometimes tiring, but often fun." . . . "I'll really be glad when we get our new uniforms." . . . "I'm proud to lead our band in parades." . . . "The best parts of the parades are the whistles and the free hot dogs."

Future Farmers of America

"Selling oranges earned us our jackets and ties." . . . "We strive to follow the goals of leadership and improve character, citizenship, scholarship, agriculture, cooperation, service, thrift, patriotism." . . . "Members of the FFA strive to serve their community and to better themselves in all areas of agriculture through trips, meetings, and contact with other chapters."

Radio Club

"Was that a 'dit-dah' or a 'dah-dit'?" . . . "Transmitting correctly on the radios takes practice and must be perfect." . . . "CQ" . . . "One must study and take a test in order to obtain a license for transmitting." . . . "Look out for the SHARC!"

Library Club

"I enjoy helping Miss Main keep the library neat." . . . "Our club aids other students in using the library." . . . "Working in the library makes me use my time better than if I were in study hall." . . . "I think our work is important."

Secretarial Service

"It gives me experience in secretarial skills." . . . "It's taught me responsibility." . . . "It means ink on your hands." . . . "It gets me out of study halls." . . . "I think the teachers really appreciate us."

"I like to take part in my class activities." . . . "I like selling things and helping our class to get money." . . . "The president's enforcing fist made me join." . . . "I thought it was about time to get going on something instead of just sitting around. I got tired of people complaining about nothing being done." . . . "The people in our class have always worked well together and have a knack for doing new and different things. We work for the pride of our class and get good work done!" . . . "It's a lot of hard work."

Junior Activities

Student Council

"We could accomplish something if people were more interested." . . . "I feel disgusted when the elected representatives don't show up for meetings." . . . "Most people complain that the students have no say in anything, and then they ignore the Student Council." . . . "I think our reorganization will really help."
