THE STILLWATER YEARBOOK
STAFF PRESENTS TO YOU
THE STILLWATER WARRIORS

THE 1985 WARRIOR.

The Senior Class of 1985 would like to dedicate The 1985 "Warrior" to the underclassmen of Stillwater Central.

We hope that you get as much out of your remaining years as we did. Make every day count and live them to the fullest. Your high school years may seem to pass slowly but when you reach your senior year you wonder where all the time went.

We would like to wish much success and when you leave Stillwater Central School, we hope you leave with pride, satisfaction, and goals for a happy tomorrow.

1984

The yearbook staff wishes to acknowledge the service and dedication of several young women who have unselfishly given of their time and expertise to the production of the Stillwater Warrior over the last four years. Without the dedication of these young ladies in regard to editing, layout, copy production, training of newcomers to the yearbook staff and the general housekeeping necessary for the production of a clean-cut yearbook, the Warrior would be something less than it is today. We wish, therefore, to thank and extend our sincere appreciation to Sarah Flike, Lori Wortz, Susan Van Vranken, and Donna Mang, for their dedication over the past years.

MY FRIENDS, MY FRIENDS

BY: EDDIE MONEY

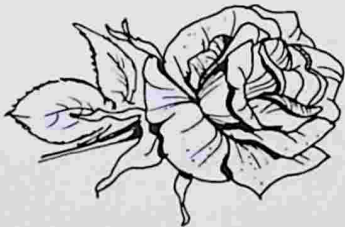

Talkin' bout my T-shirts
And how they used to fit me
When I'm laughin' with the boys
Their spirits seem to lift me
We were talkin' bout '68 and '69
And all the things we did
It's not that now we're all that old
... then ... we were just kids

My friends, my friends
Never got together again but
I love my friends
My friends

My memories are happy
And my memories are sad
But I love to take my pictures out
And take the things I had
My songs are not like my life now
And it's always true
Me and friends were dreamers
Dreamin' all we do
My friends, my friends
Never got together again but
I love my friends

My friends, my friends
We never got together again
But I love my friends
My friends

My friends, my friends
We never got together again but
I really do miss my Friends
