Dedication

Life, at times, appears lonely and we feel helpless. However, during our lowest times we never seem alone. Family and friends are the one constant element in our lives, having given us something of themselves.

Even though tomorrow in the work force we will not recognize our high school selves, the memories of those who cared and supported us, will remain forever strong.

Thank you to our families and friends, this book gratefully goes unto you.

—Sara—

In Memorium

Charles N. Baker

Who could not adore that ear to ear grin? We miss you! He accomplished so much in his 25 years of service.

"Big Boom at Castle Doom" and others came from the Drama Club, Student Council meetings brought us each a little closer.

In 7th Grade it was the slamming of his drawer that scared us, but as Seniors, it was the knowledge he always said we had.

*He made us laugh until the tears poured,
and as head chaperone, he tickled us through graduation.*

His commitment and dedication to the students here will not be forgotten, I assure you.

He has touched our hearts in some unique way, for if it weren't for him, writing this wouldn't be possible.

Mr. Baker, we pray for you now, and hope God has embraced your soul with the kindness and vivacity that touched our lives.

—Sara—

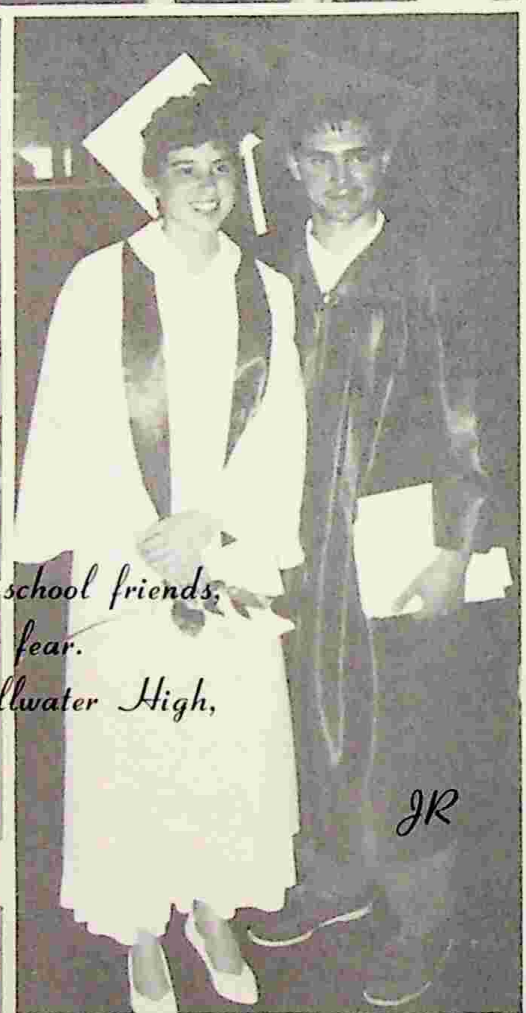

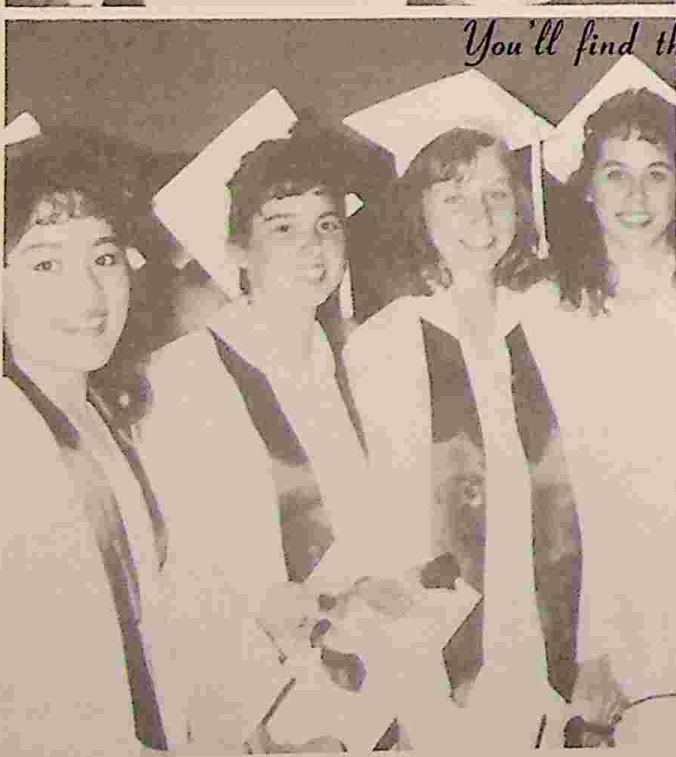

*When you graduate and leave S.H.S.,
 You end your high school days.
 Your locker is no longer yours,
 Your shadows fade away.*

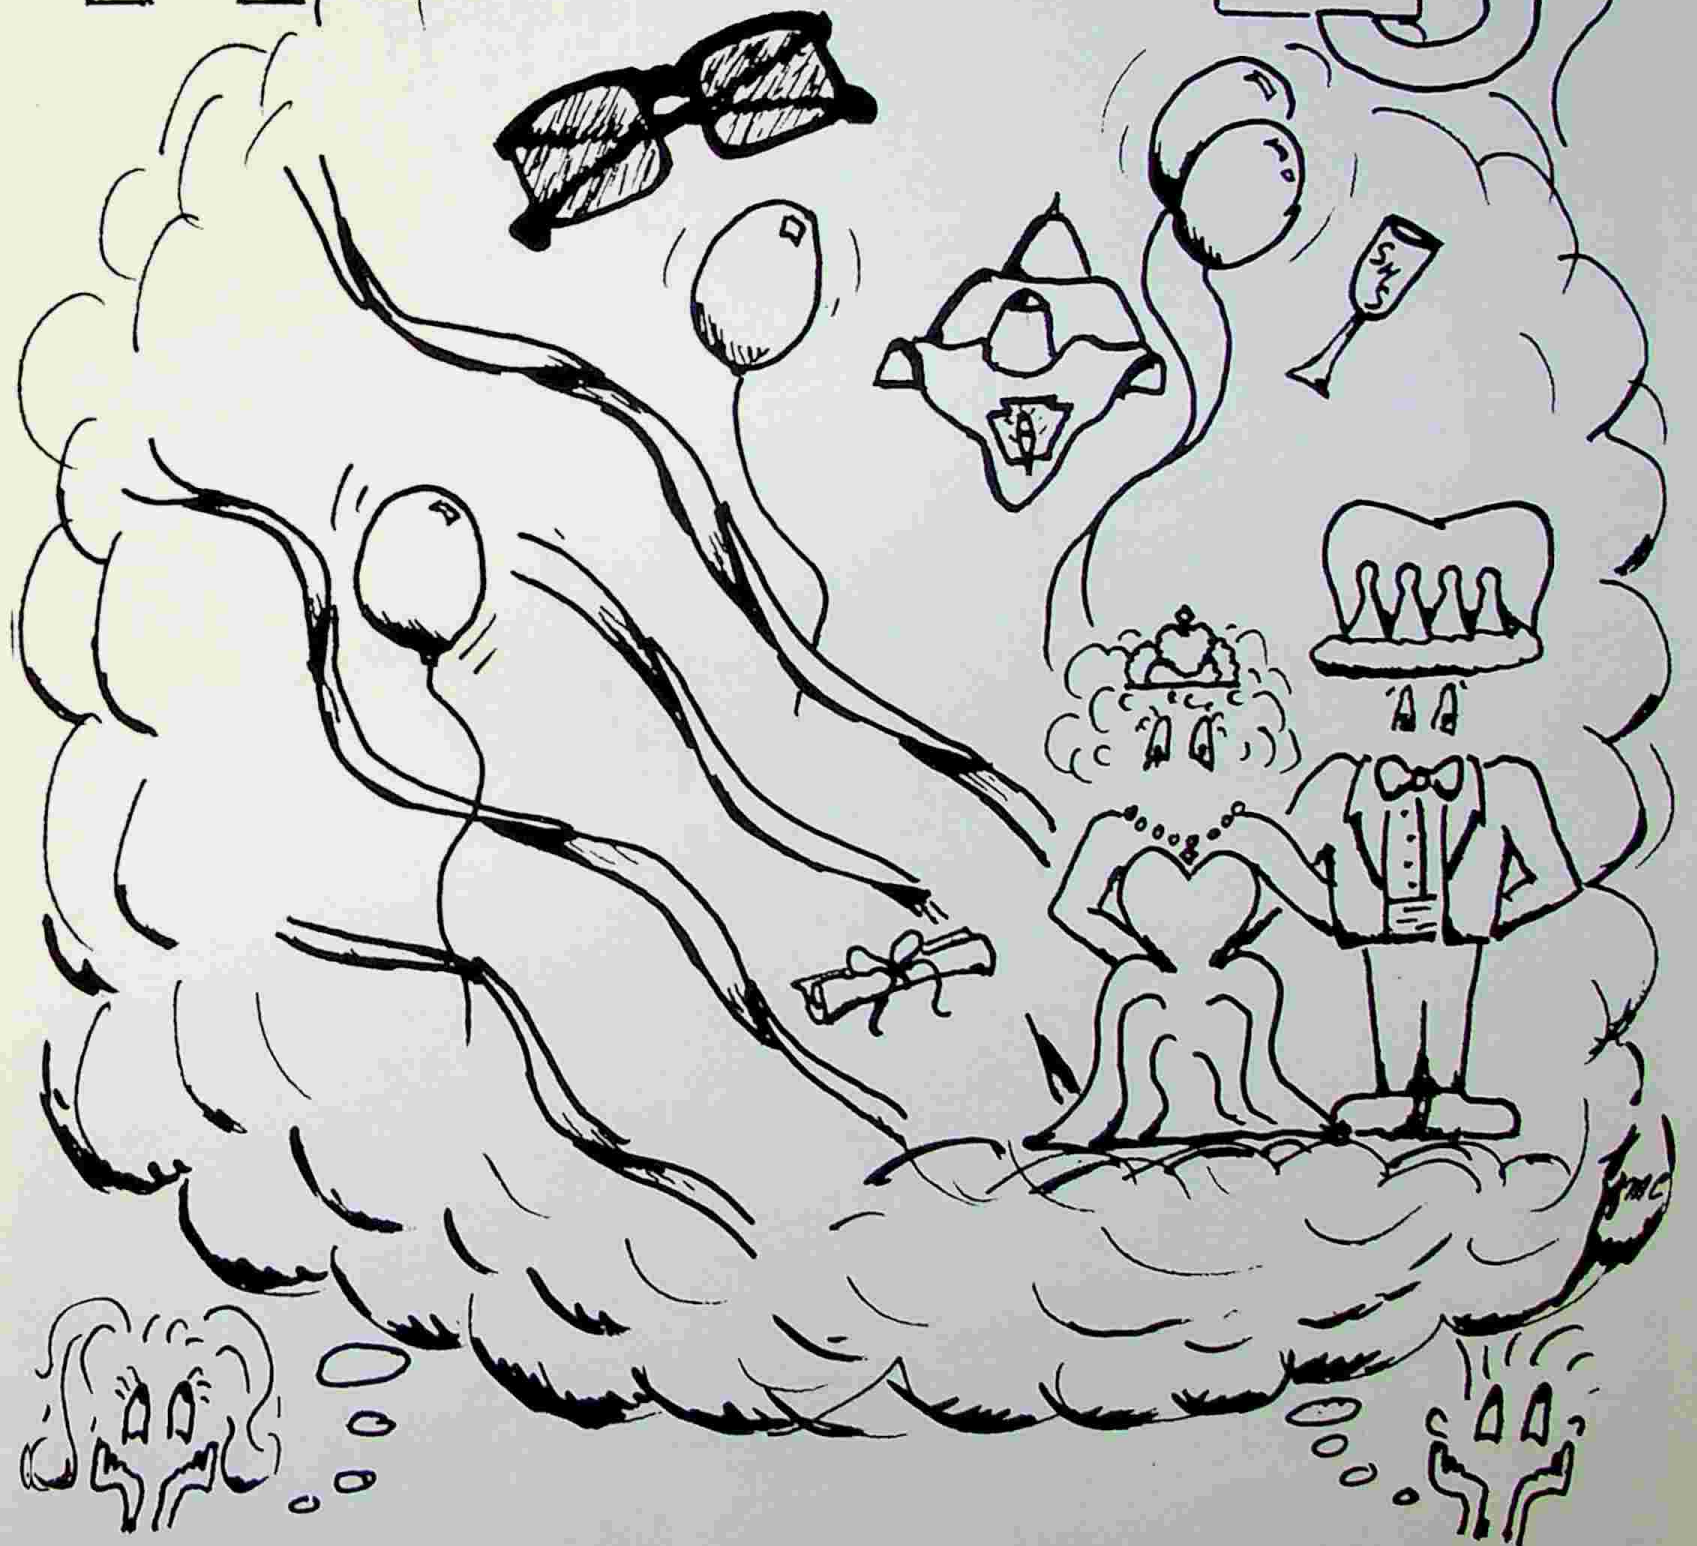

*Though others may forget you,
 And never hear of you again,
 They walk down the very hallways
 Where your memories began.
 The games, the prom, our Alma-Mater.
 Are precious memories in your heart.
 There are so many made at S.H.S.
 You don't know where to start.
 You've created a special bond with high school friends,
 Losing those friendships you need not fear.
 For somewhere among the corners of Stillwater High,
 You'll find those memories here.*

*Life deals many a wild card, but,
Friends are there at all times,
family we make for ourselves ...
so the saying goes.*

*No matter what jokers are out there the gifts given by others

roughest times.
As graduation nears our new lives begin and start to unfold.*

*A good-bye to our high school friends

*You're welcomed here in 7th grade,
 To begin your very first high school day.
 To be looked up to as a senior seems so far away,
 Next thing you know, it's graduation day,
 Through the years you move up the ladder,
 The work gets harder and the days go by faster.*

*As each year goes by you look back to recall,
 Those special times shared . . . you'll cherish them all.
 Hold dear, the friends and memories of SHS, They're the first in many and they're always the best.
 With a tear in our eye, we leave it to you,
 So underclassmen please, take care of our school . . .*

Alright, now sports means sweat, aching muscles, and lots of determination.

But look what else comes out of sports, teamwork, friends, and inspirations.

Now there's cliques and different groups of friends but one truth still remains.

When you get together on a team, you're all one in the same.

The sports at Stillwater High have changed, though the uniforms aren't much better.

*But you wear it and just grin right through,
'til you get your Varsity letter.*

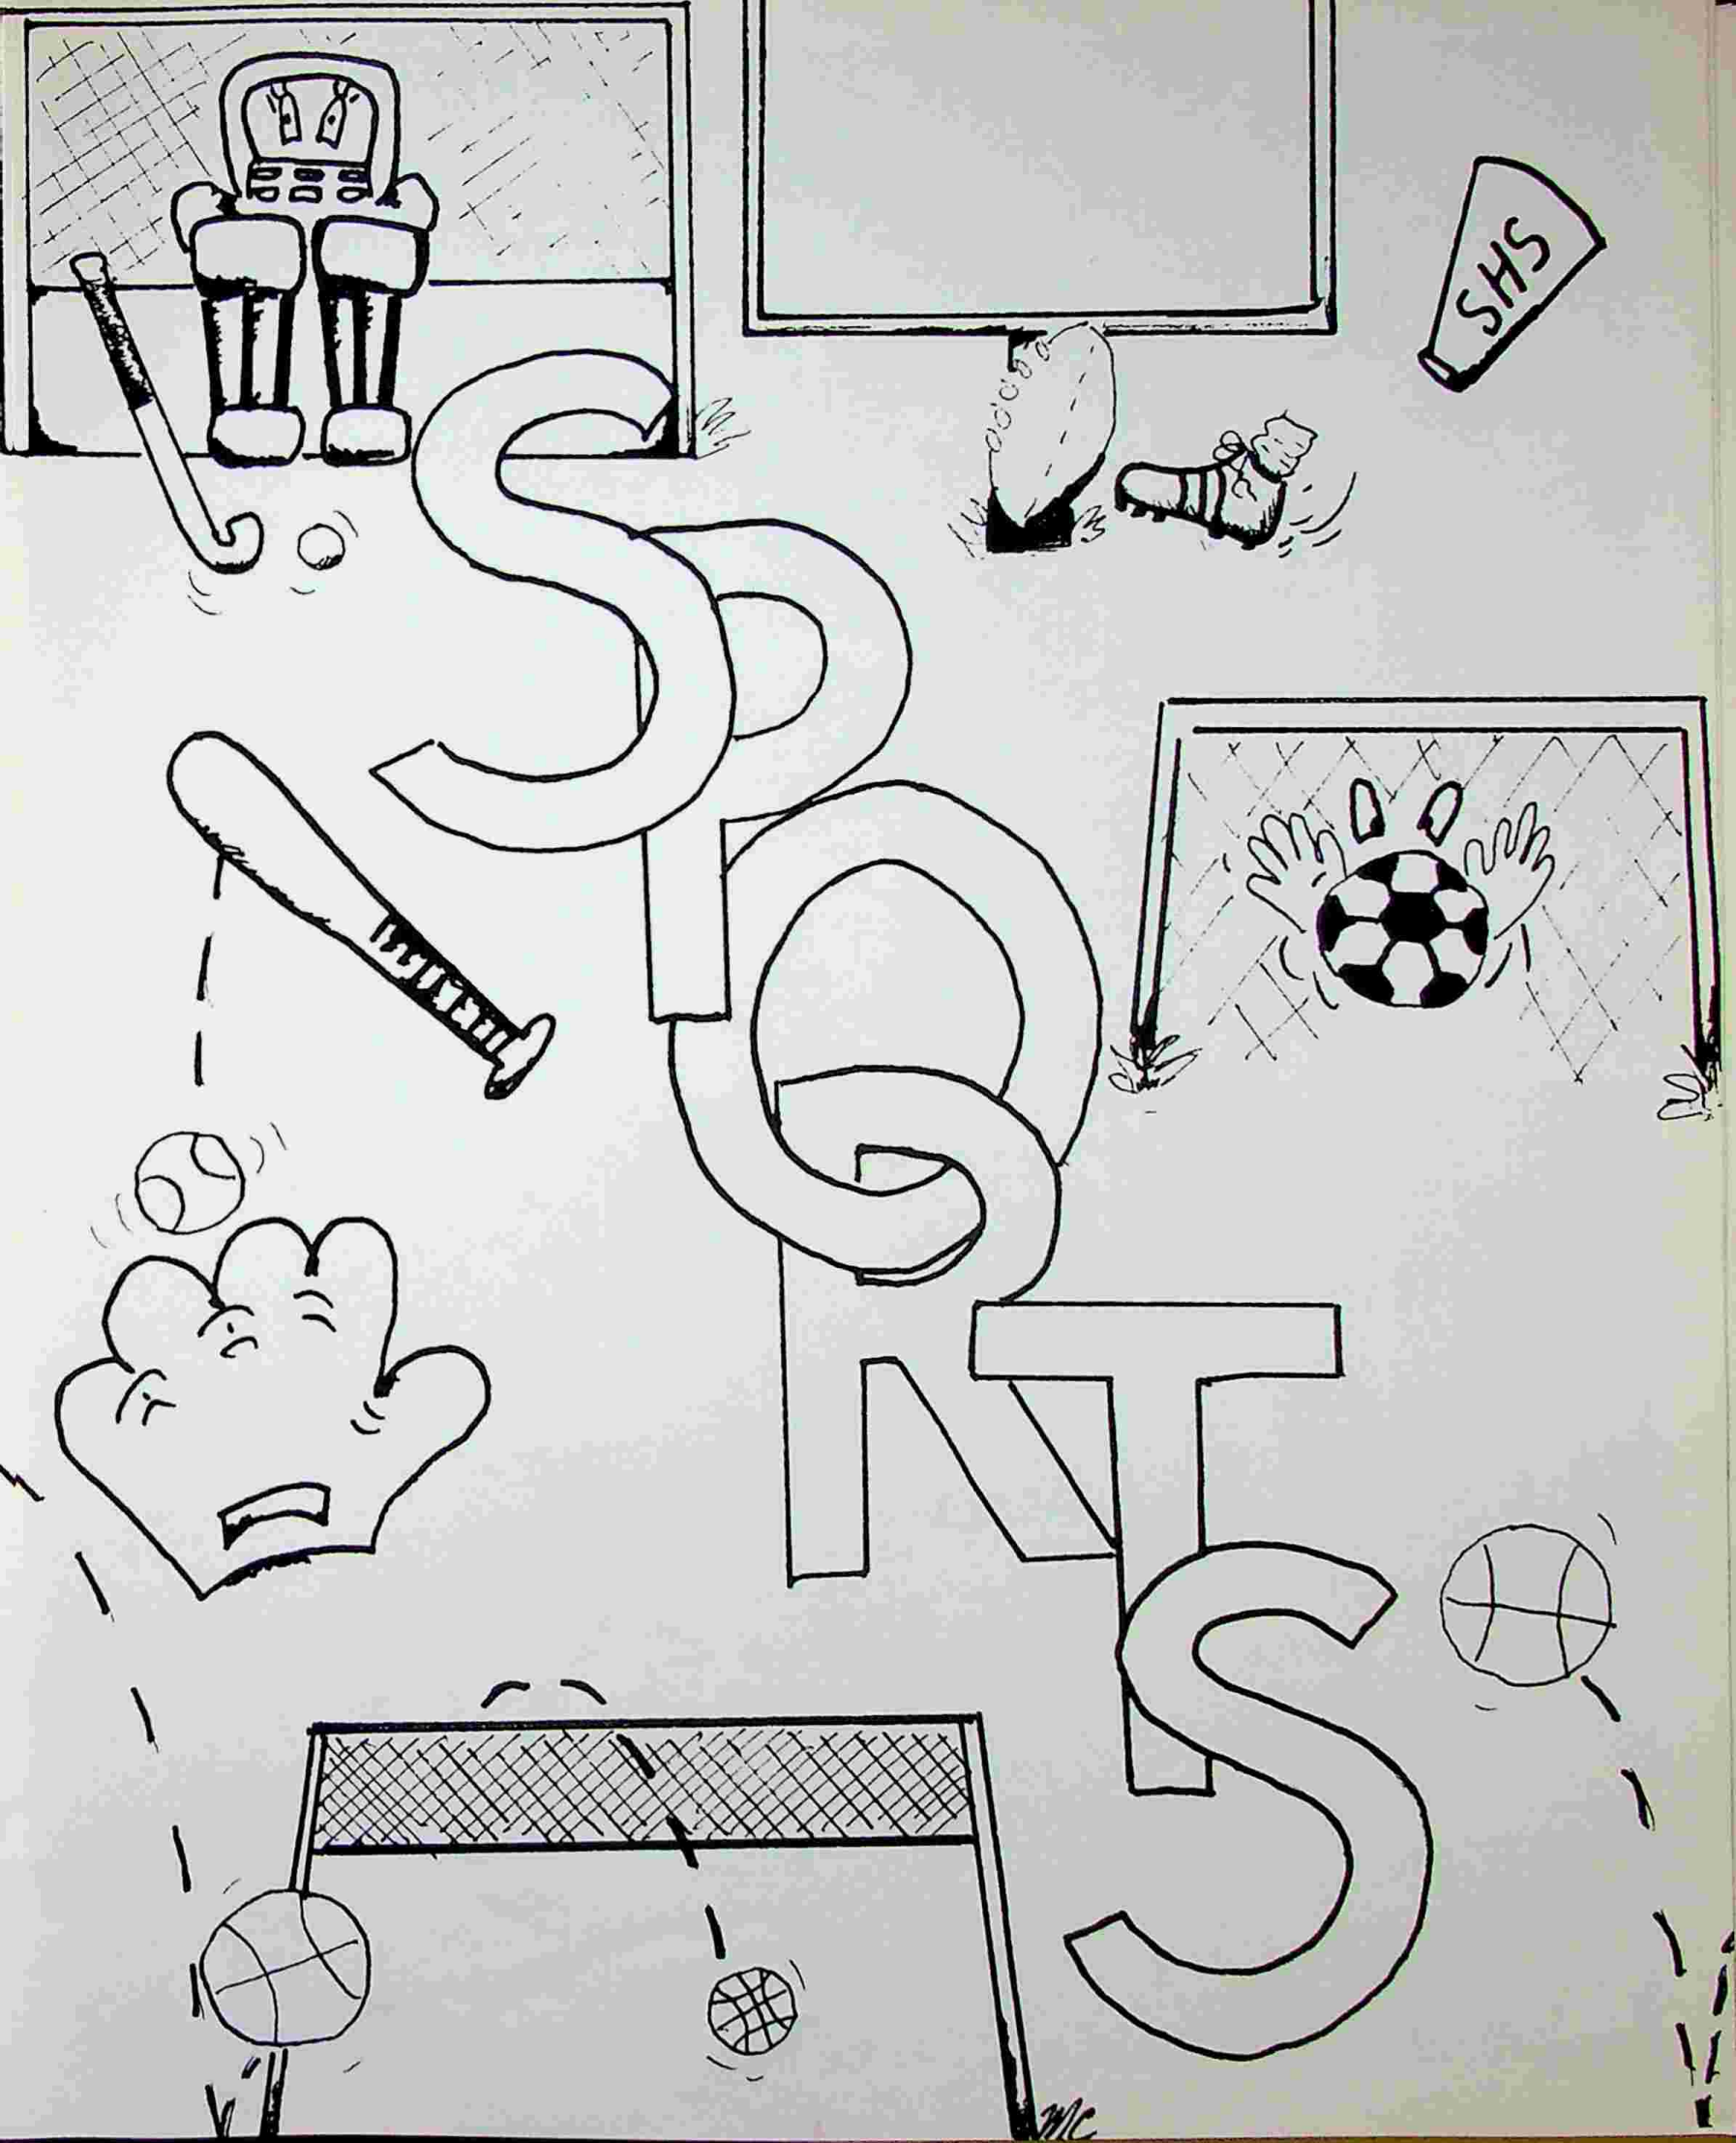

*There's been great moments in our sports history,
State Basketball Champs of '88.*

*But nothing can top this year's Homecoming game,
When Mechanicville met their worst fate!*

A Memorium — Mark Alan Mondoux

To many Mark was an incredible basketball player but to those of us who were lucky enough to have known Mark knew that he was more than a basketball star, he was a wonderful person and a great friend. Mark had an untouchable personality that could lift anyone's spirit and a part angel part devil grin that could bring a smile to even the saddest of faces. Mark left an everlasting impression on everyone he came in contact with, whether it was on the basketball court or in person. In Mark's short 22 years on this earth he inspired so many people with his love for life and basketball. Although we're going to miss him he will never be forgotten. Mark will always be with us in spirit and in our memories, For the memory of a friend like Mark who inspired so many people is an unforgettable friend. Mark Alan Mondoux "Dox" will be loved and cherished forever—
#10.

"The Headache Crew"

You may have given me and yourselves a headache, but it was an interesting challenge. I have some great memories and you'll be missed. Love, Mrs. K.

Mrs. K.,

You've been more than our teacher- you've been our friend. You've listened to our stories; the short and simple and the "not-so-short and simple." Our senior year has been a success and we owe it all to you.

Thanks! We couldn't have done it without you. We'll miss you!

Love,
"The Headache Crew"
(and JOAN)

*Deep in the hearts of every person
Lies the thoughts of the past
Fondness stretching back
To our innocent childhood.*

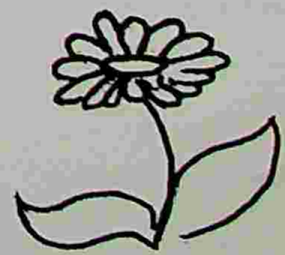

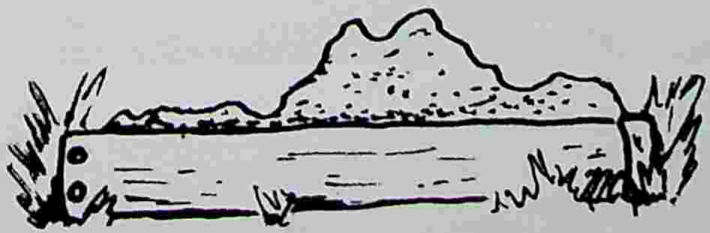

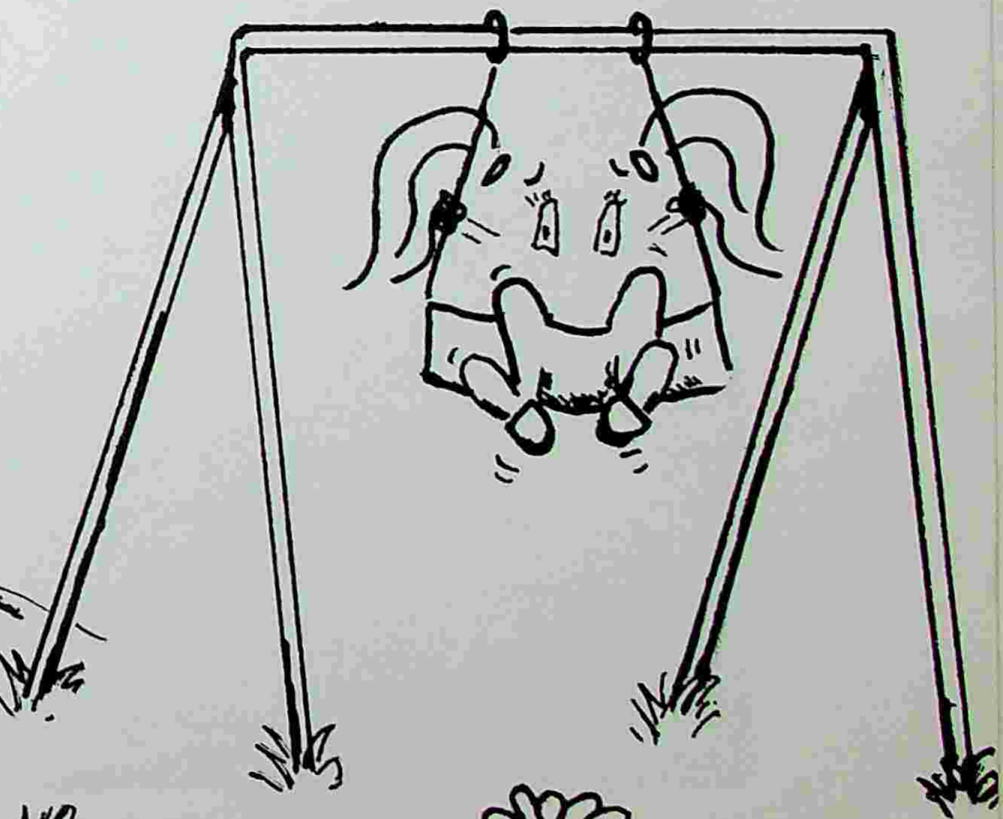

*Hidden among the lunchpails and teddybears are the secrets of the universe
The world is so small,
But there's much to be discovered.*

Don't you think we should have gotten best looking?

We're off to see the wizard...

*If we could crack our images,
 simply shatter that mirror,
 We would see all who have given,
 those who took the time.*

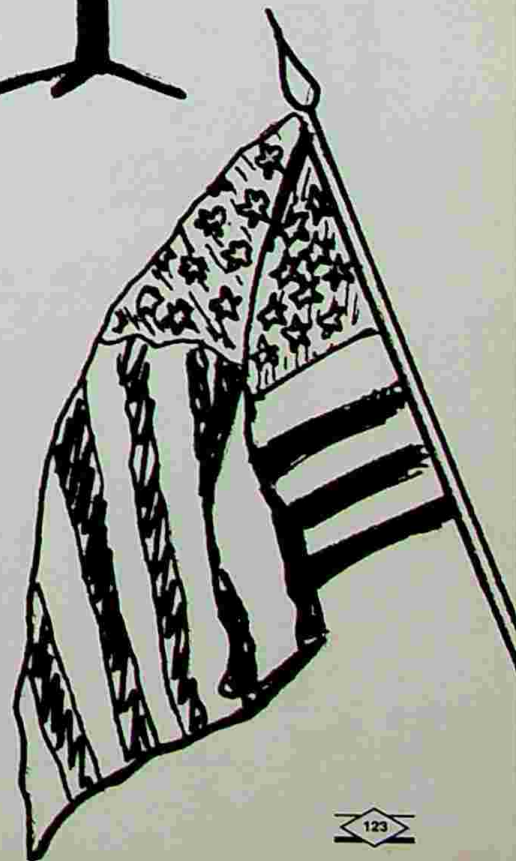

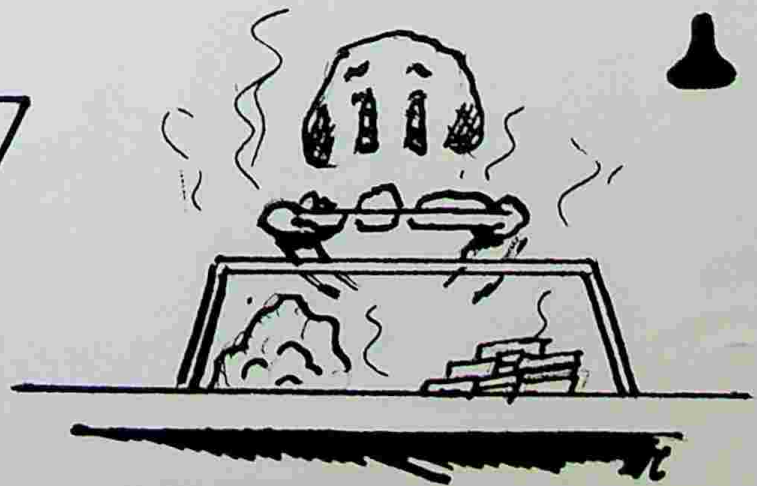

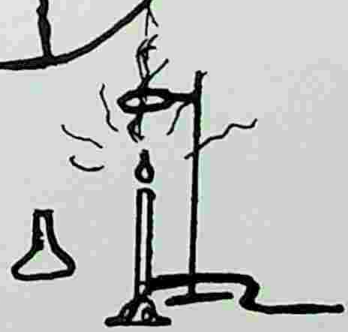

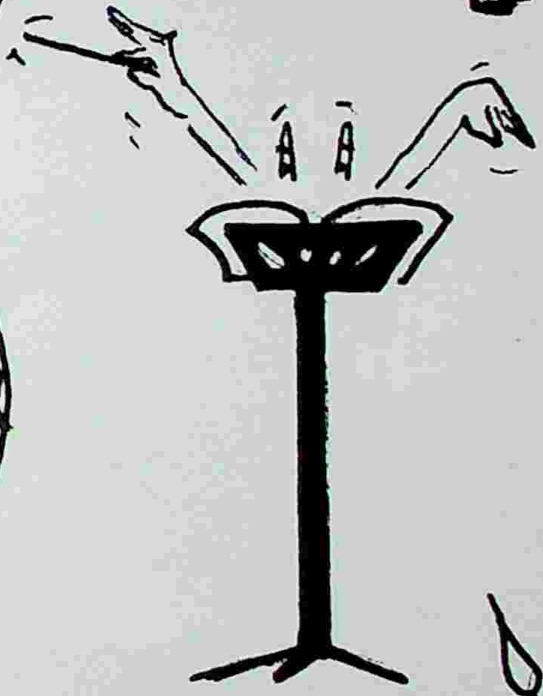

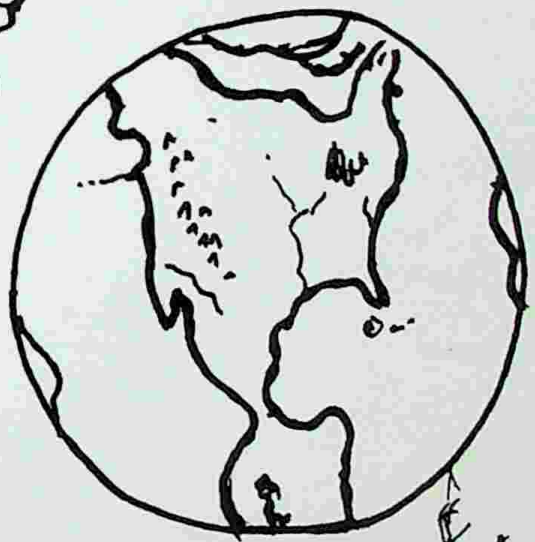

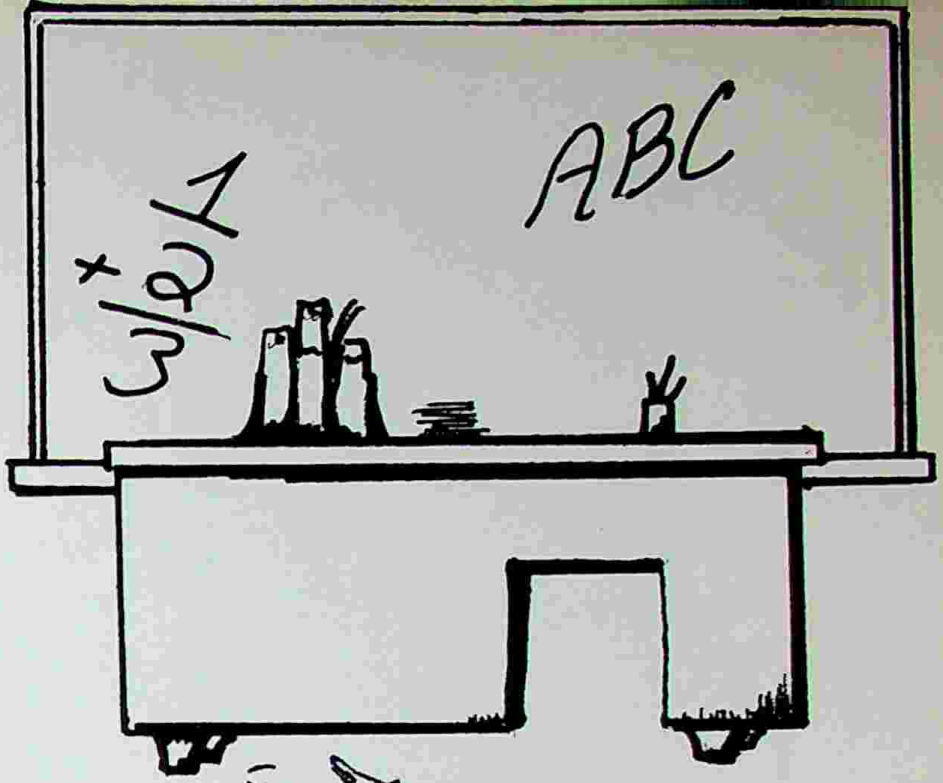

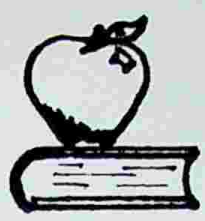

*Parts of us were once a part of you,
 our common thoughts today,
 Which appear inborn and natural,
 are all due to your perseverance.*

*We came to you to learn, not just subjects,
 but about life.
 You've taught us more than you'll know,
 more than we can share.*

*Now as we enter this strange world into which we have been born;
 You've led us to these many paths,
 and prepared us to leave...*

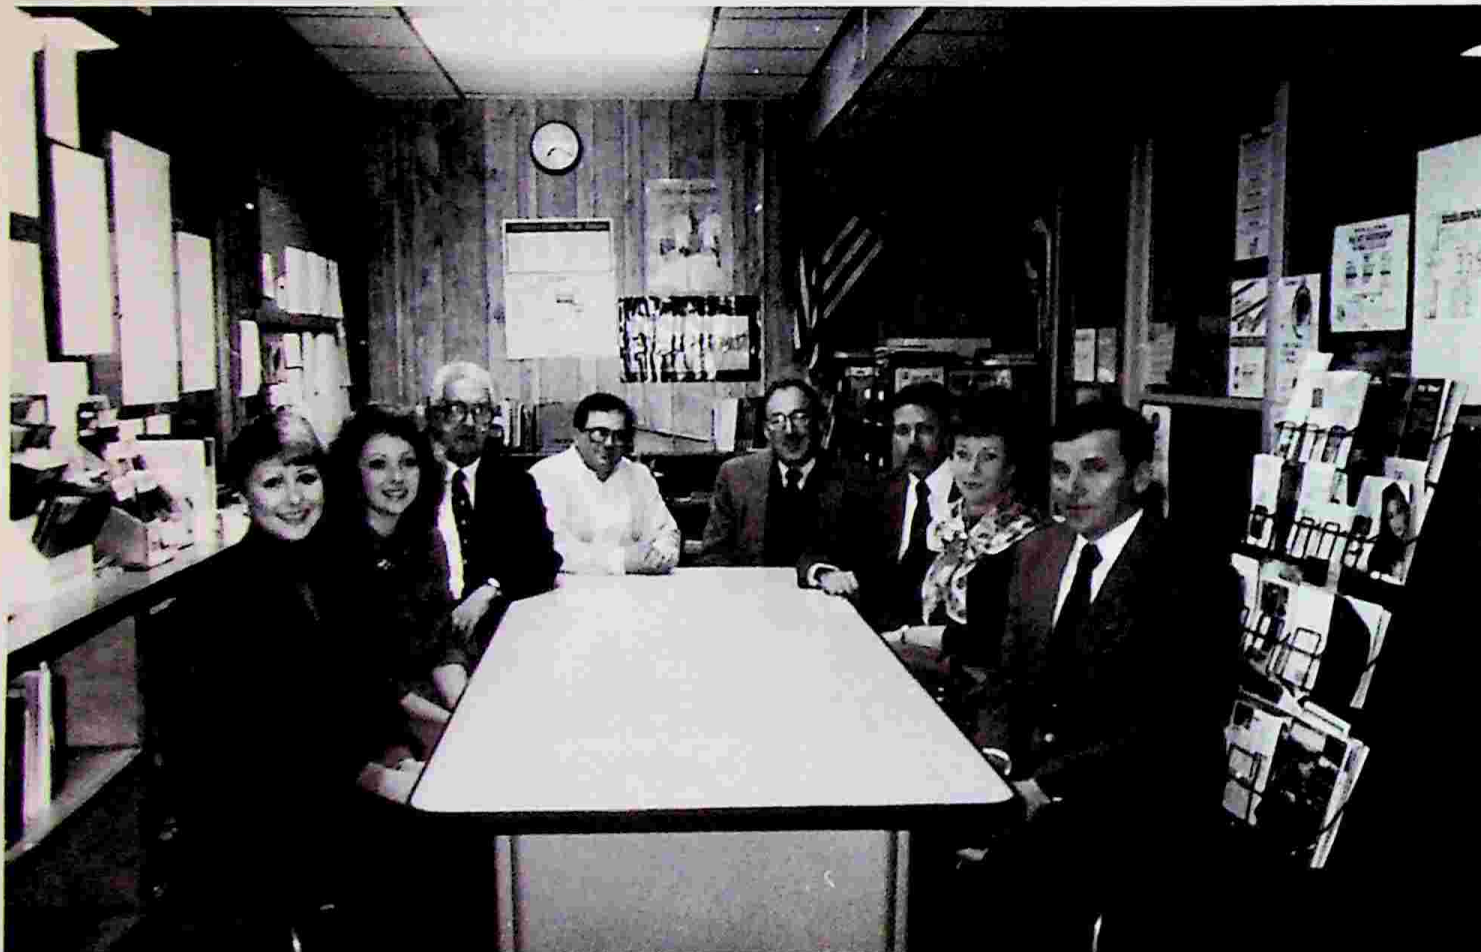

*...thank you

We are fortunate to have had one another, even though we must go our separate ways. The special times spent together, the people and places shared, are memories we will all have. Now it is "our turn" to go out into the world, but as we leave one another we must always remember the love and laughter we have shared through the years, and never forget our lasting friendships which will last a lifetime!

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is the walks in the rain,
The words you exchange,
And the knowledge you gain.

Friendship is to hold someone's hand,
To exchange a smile,
And to try and understand.

Friendship is to lend an ear,
To give advice,
And to dry a tear.

Friendship takes work so it won't fall apart.
Because Friendship isn't Friendship.
'Till it's engraved in your heart.

We wish the end was not so near.
 It seems to bring such certain fear.
 But changes forever seem to keep,

SUMMER OF 90

PP Trip - June 21, 1990, Toi let Paper?

Friendship is listening,
 Picking each other up when we fall.
 Friendship is sharing the tears,
 The laughter,
 The giggles.

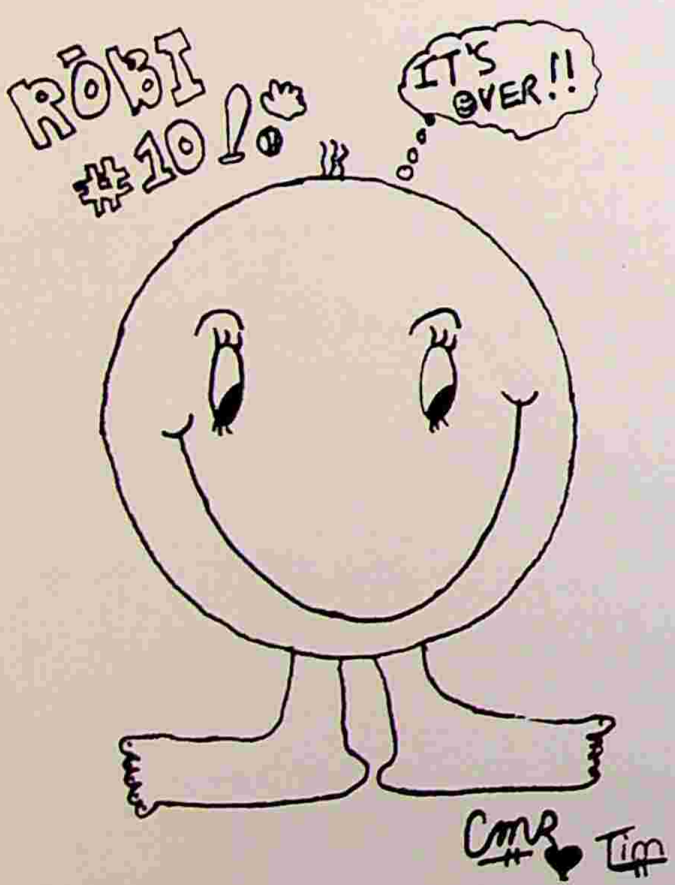

Through good times and bad,
 Happy, and even sad,
 The friendship we've shared
 Will never fade from our thoughts,
 Our words,
 Or from our hearts.

And it is not only friendship
 That we've shared,
 But, an everlasting LOVE.
 A love shared by only the four of us.
 A love so special, one that
 No one can take away or replace!

ANDY, You have a special gift, one that you've given to me so many times. That gift, is to make others feel loved and special. Now it is my turn to give that gift back to you by telling you just how special you are to me, that no matter what happens, you'll always be in my heart and in my fondest memories, and to wish you all the best with all the love and happiness in the world. Most of all, I want you to know that I love you so very much.
