WASTED TIME

You and I together in our lives
Sacred ties would never fray
Then why can I let myself tell lies
And watch you die every day.

I think back to the times
When dreams were what mattered
Tough talking youth rainete

You said you never let me down
But the hours stampeded and rages
In the name of desperation

It is all just wasted time
Can you look out yourself
When you think of what

Is it all just wasted time
Can you line with yourself
When you think of what

Paranoid delusions thay haunt you
Where's my friend I used to know
He's all alone
He's buried deep within a carcass
Searching for a soul

Can you feel me inside your heart
As it's bleeding
Why can't you believe you can't believe you can't be loved

I hear you scream in agony
And the horse stampeded and rages
In the name of desparation

You said you never let me down
But the horse stampeded, it rages
In the name of desperation

The sun will rise again
The earth will turn to sand
Creation's colors seem to fade to grey
And you'll see the stickly hand of time
Will write your final rhyme
And end a memory

I never tought you'd let it get this far, boy.

SENIORS

Early, breezy morning in September
We wait eagerly with our lunch boxes in hand
It's hard to remember,
the first day of school and
We all walked in together.

Early breezy morning in September
It was time for Palmer Street
Does anyone remember?
Recess, swings, and where friends were made to keep.

Early breezy morning in September
The day we moved to Middle School
We should all remember
First names, lockers and more new rules.
We all walked in together.

Early breezymorning in September
The first day of High School
We will remember.
When we "thought" the teachers were mean and cruel
We all walked in together

An early warm morning in June
The Class of 1996
The day is soon come
We'll all walk out together.

Rachel L. Salisbury

CLASS of 1996

Those of you who held us back,
Who tried to stand in our way,
Who took a seat right in our path,
To you we gladly say.
Disliking us, it got you nowhere.
It only made us stronger.
You thought we'd quit before we got there,
But we all held on longer.
To all of you, we know who you are,
Before we sadly part,
We dedicate this book to you,
And know we've LEFT OUR MARK!

Michele,
We've been through a lot of st together, good times and bad. You've always been there for me when I needed you the most, just remember I'll always be there for you. Anyways, Congratulations Michele. I wish you the best of luck in the future. Don't ever forget the time when our cars got towed. Also, when we went camping and I fell in that hole. There's one thing in life, Michele that "you" could always use practice on and that's "your driving". Just kidding. Don't forget that summer for "95" f ruled.
Love Always

Jessica Alfert

Kindness and joy eminated from his smile. Knowing him was a privilege taken for granted. Loving him came so easily to all of us. Loving us came so easily to him. A beautiful soul that gave himself to his family and friends. A beautiful soul that will be embedded in our hearts, souls and minds always.

In loving memory of David P. Ambrosino
