Where Do We Go From Here?

How do we look past
all that we have done?
How do we go our separate ways
when we all began as one?

We thought that we knew everything,
learning more with every year.
We realize now we don't even know
where we go from here.

There's a road that lies ahead,
a path that we must find,
Following our future with memories
of all we've left behind.

To see of what we're made,
we go out on our own
With hopes as hard as rock
and dreams carved in the stone.

Our future's soon the present,
once a dream from the past.
We know we'll leave each other
and hope our friendships last.

It's hard to recollect
the times that we've been sad.
Our hearts have now been flooded
by the good times that we had.

Our summers were too short.
Our winters were too long.
Now time to take the stage,
and we feel we don't belong.

As a group we were navigated.
As individuals we'll have to steer
To find our place in the world
and where we go from here.

We will walk across the stage
fighting our tears from falling down.
Our faces will pose a smile,
but our hearts will hold a frown.

To our teachers - we say thanks.
To our parents - please don't cry.
To the people we've grown up with,
We must now say good-bye.

We watched as classes left before us,
And now the tables have turned.
We're frightened by our departure
regardless of all we've learned.

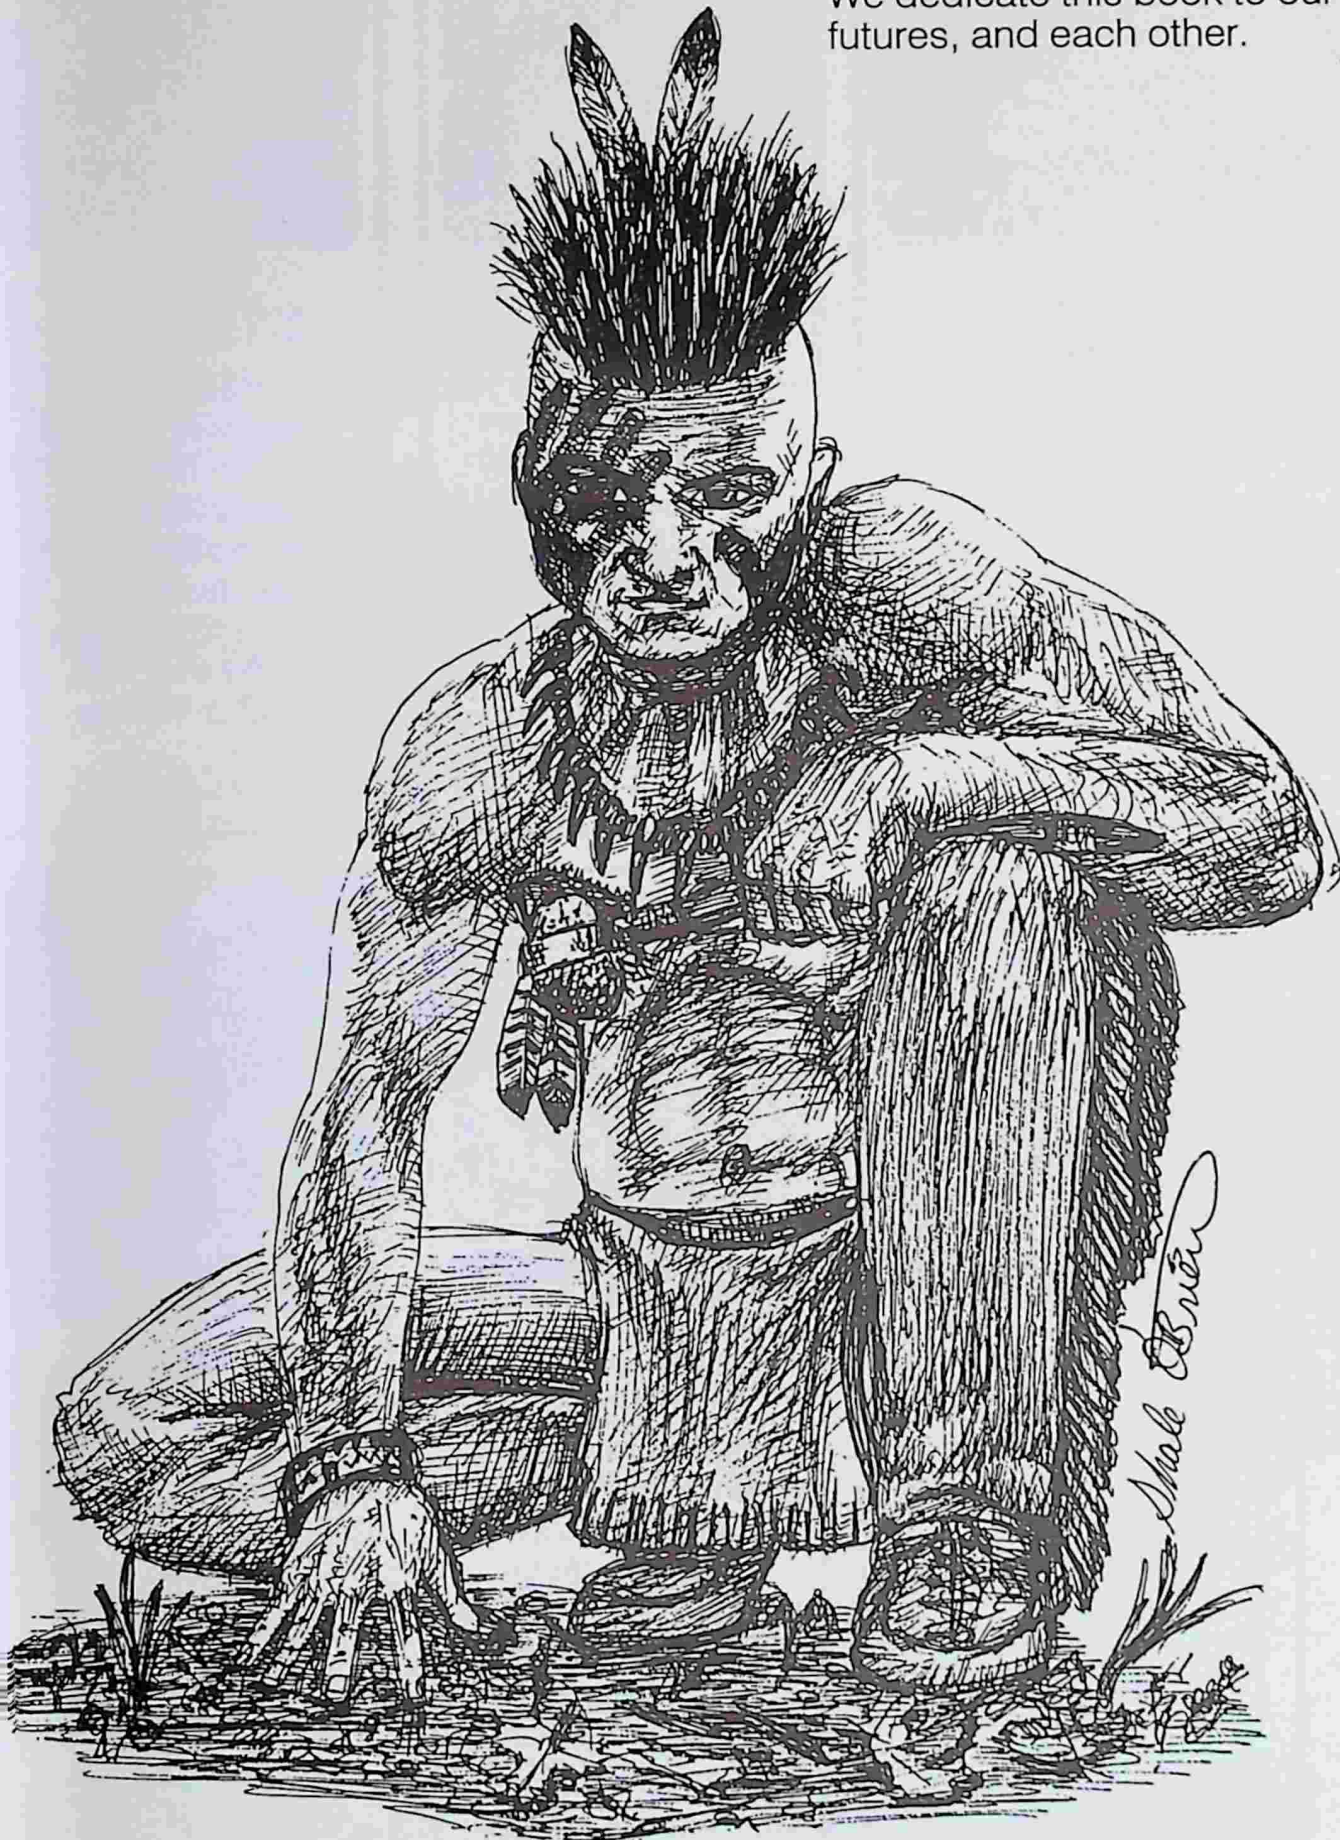

This day had seemed so far.
Yet it clearly was so near.
Not knowing what we'll be
or where we go from here.

High school days are gifts.
Memories are treasures to hold.
The days to come are silver.
The days we had are gold.

Where do we go from here?
We're certain we can't go back.
The curtain ends the final scene,
and everything fades to black.

We dedicate this book to our teachers, our futures, and each other.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

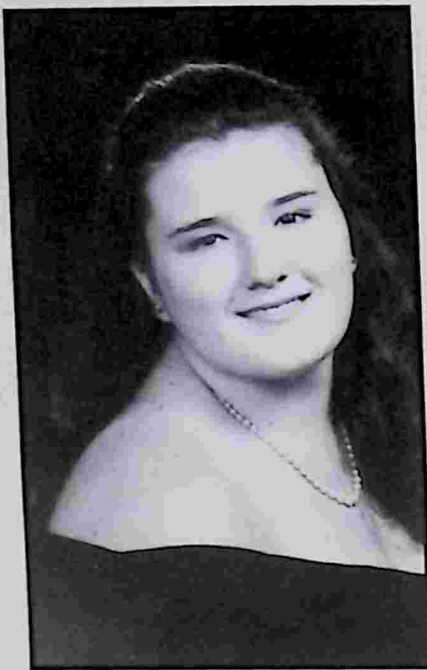

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

CLASS SONG: Into The Mystic

We were born before the wind
Also younger than the sun
Ere the bonnie boat was won as we sailed into the mystic
Hark, now hear the sailors cry
Smell the sea and feel the sky
Let your soul and spirit fly into the mystic

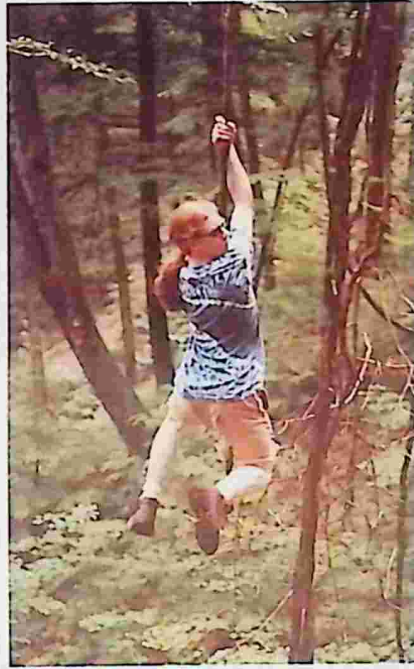

And when that fog horn blows I will be coming home
And when the fog horn blows I want to hear it
I don't have to fear it
I want to rock your gypsy soul
Just like way back in the day's of old
Then magnificently we float into the mystic
And when that fog horn blows you know I will be coming home
And when that fog horn whistle blows I got to hear it
I don't have to fear it
I want to rock your gypsy soul
Just like way back in the days of old
And together we will float into the mystic
Come on girl...
Too late to stop now.

Where Do We Go From Here?

Now it's time to say good-bye to all of you that helped us stride.
As our journey is beginning to untie, the memories we shared will never die.
To you we say this final good-bye.

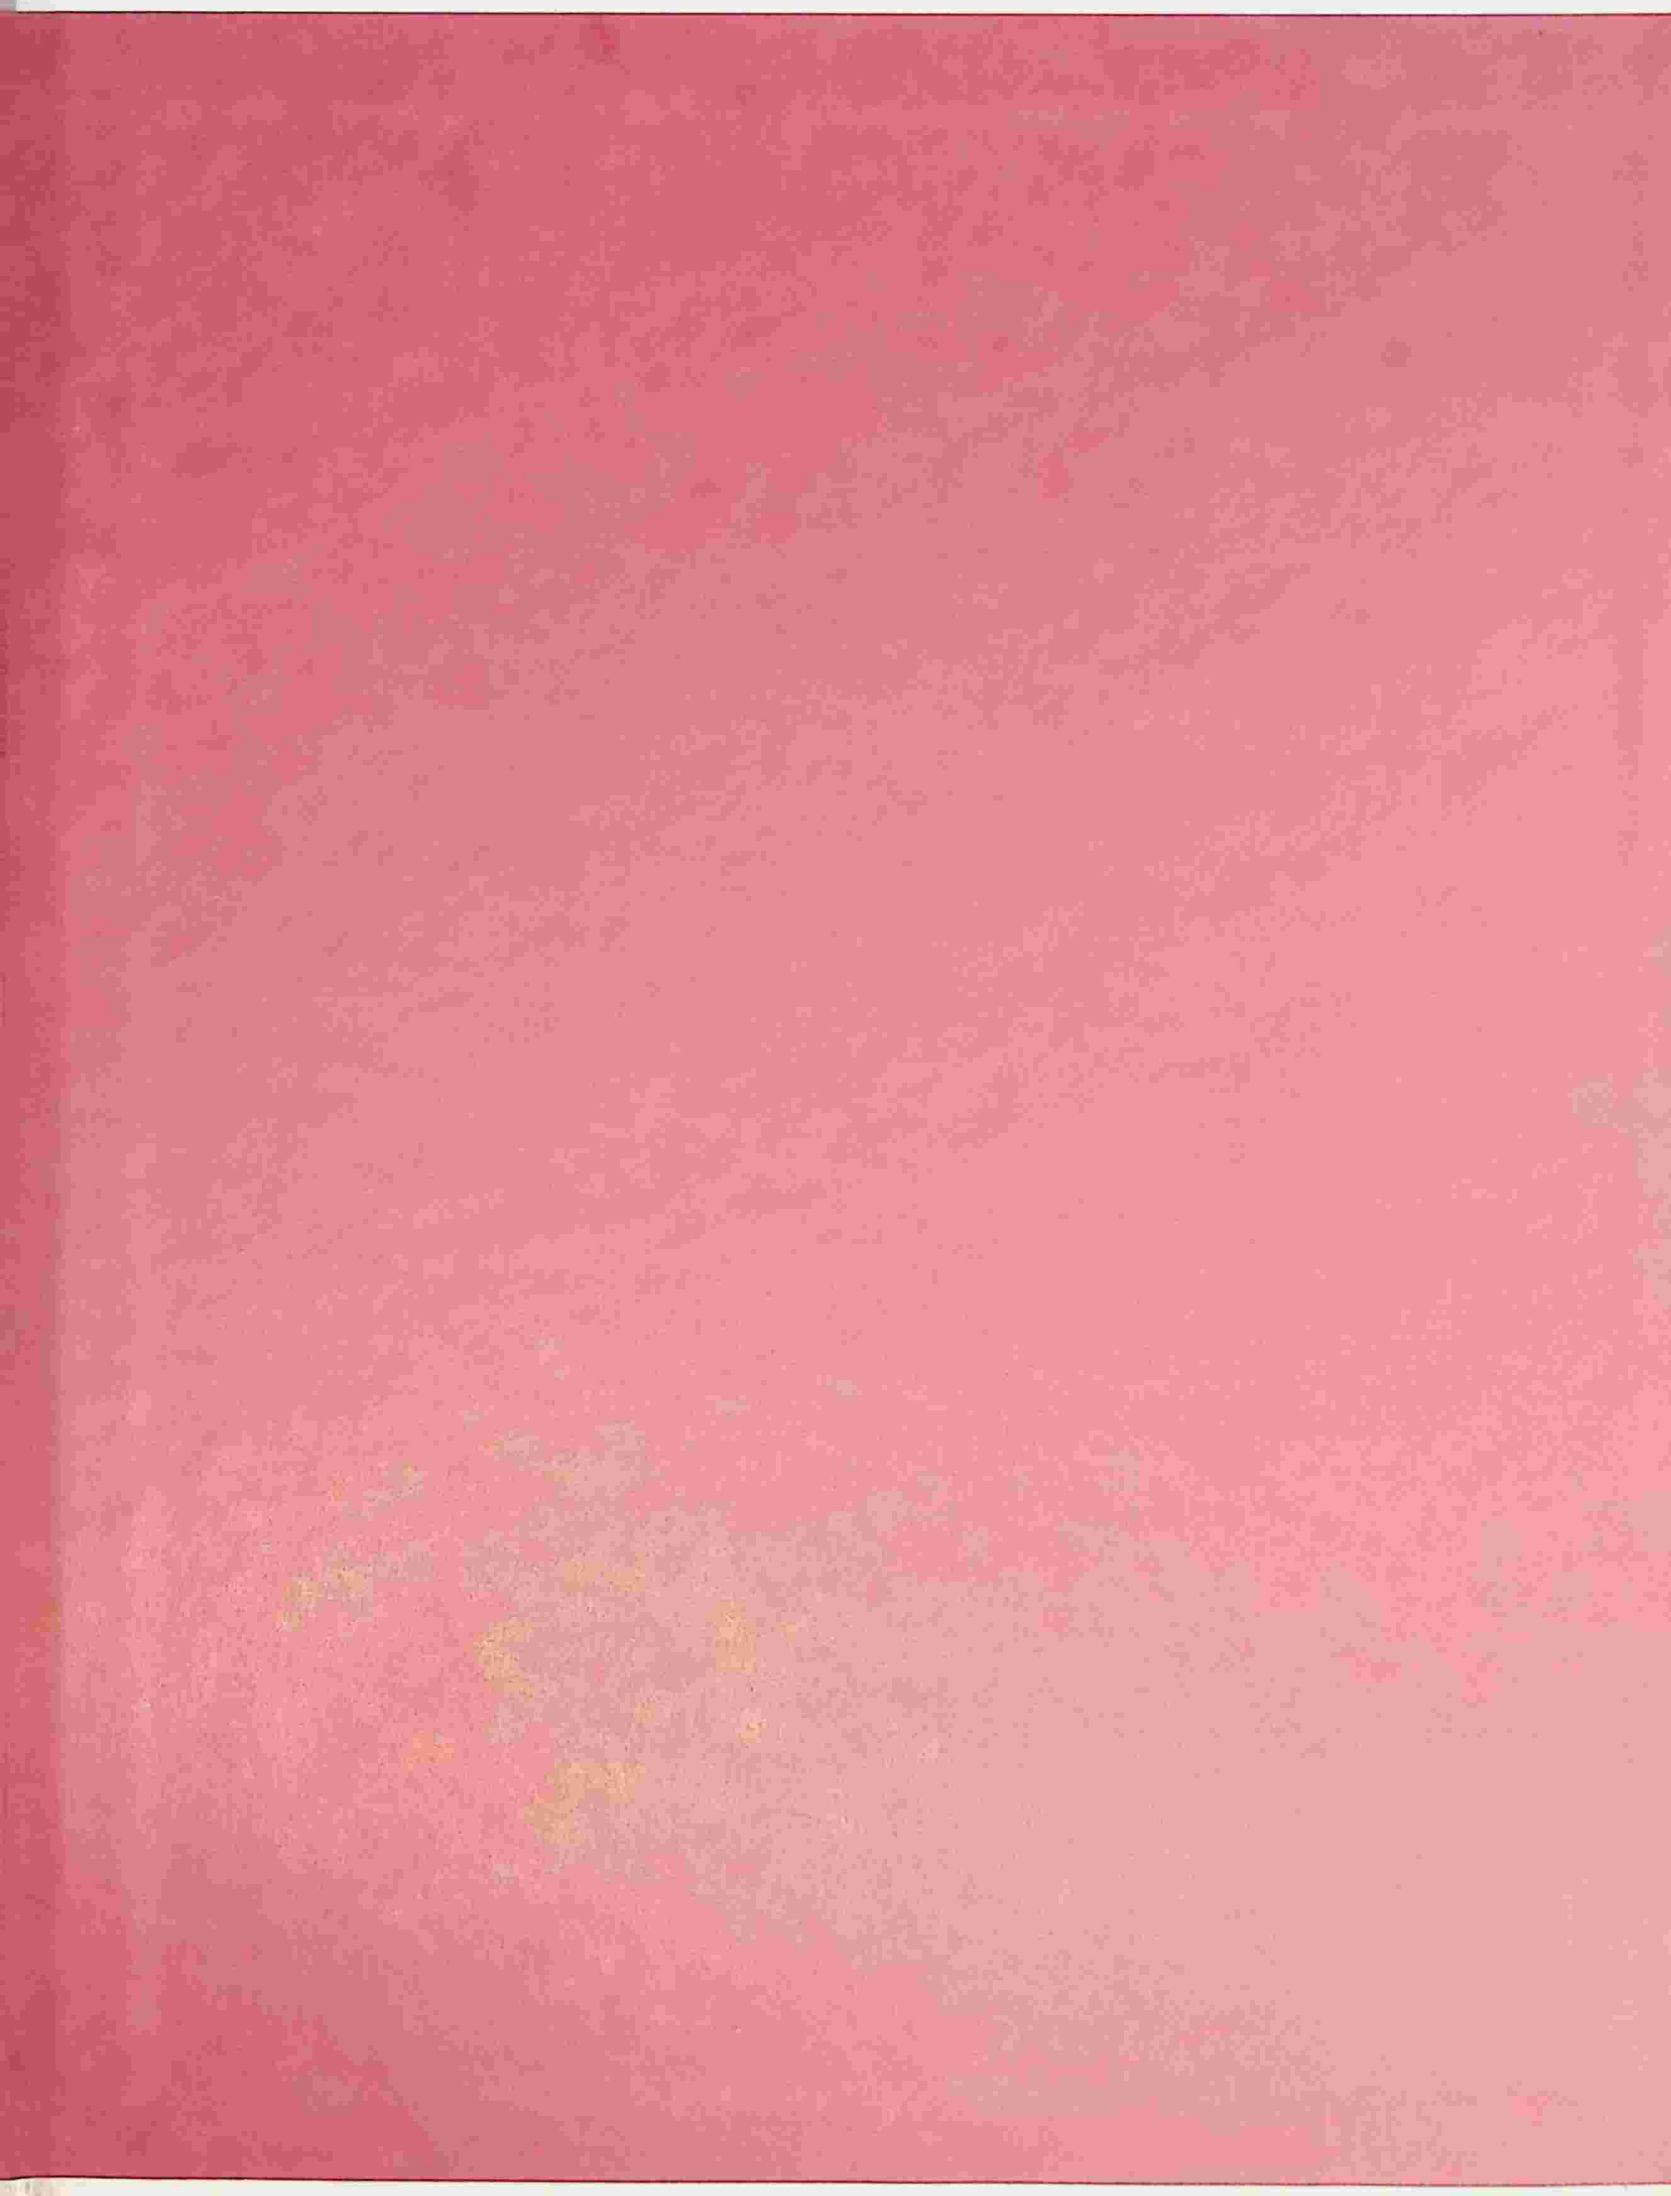

Where do we go from here? Only our hearts and souls are aware.
