STEWART IN A STEW

In My Life

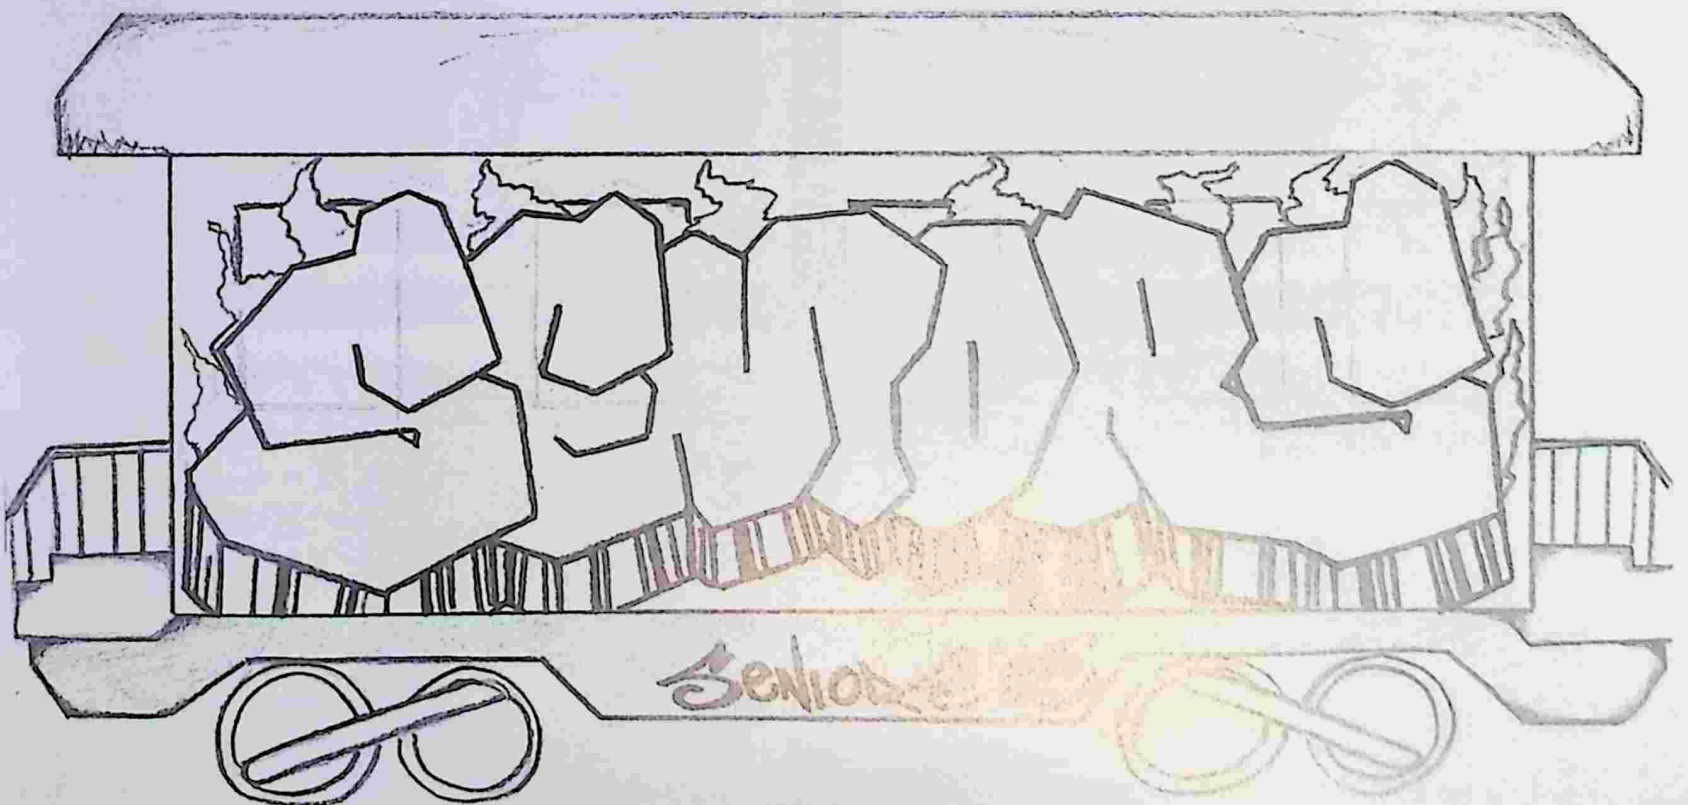

(John Lennon, Paul McCartney)

*There are places I remember
All my life though some have changed
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I've loved them all*

*But of all these friends and lovers
There is no one compares with you
And these memories lose their meaning
When I think of love as something new
Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life I love you more*

*Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life I love you more*

*Warrior pride can be bittersweet,
Reminding us of all that's come and gone:*

*All our battles, whether lost or won,
Days of bliss, and days we would delete.*

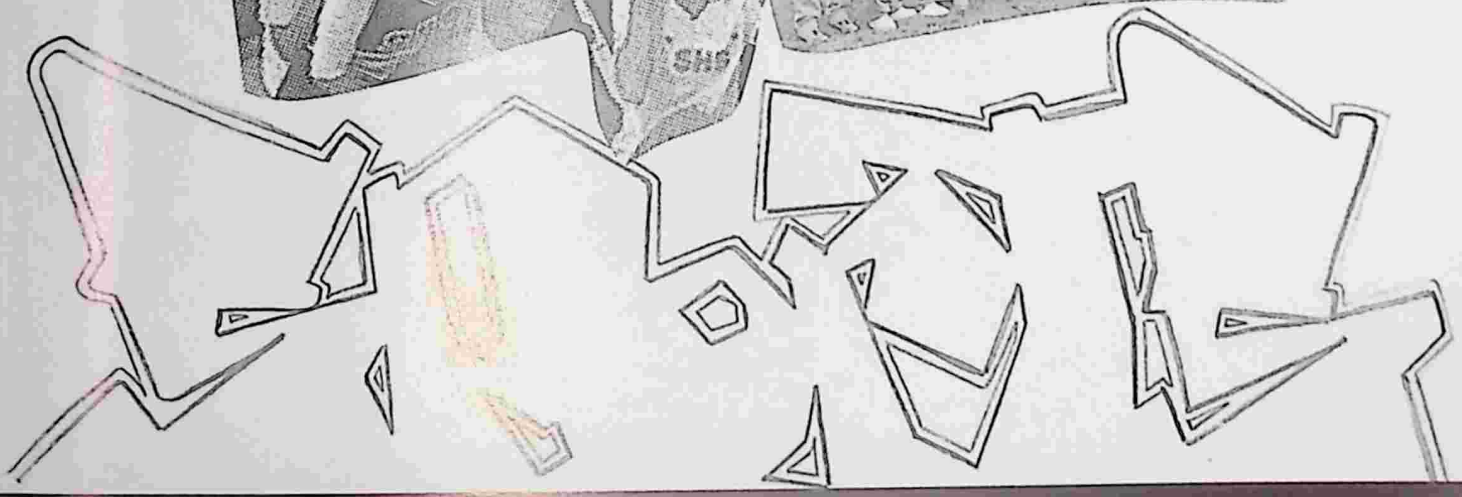

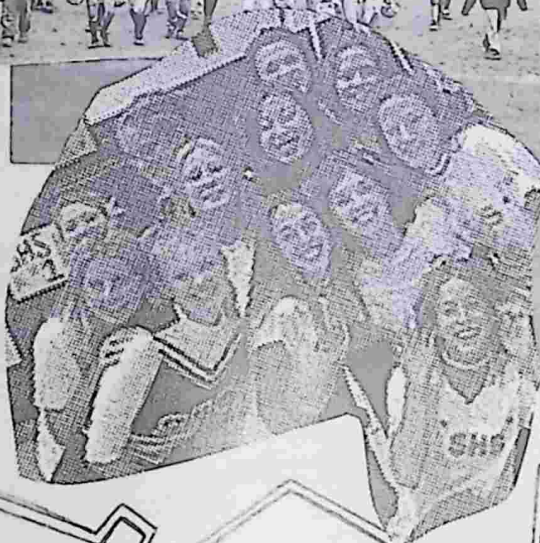

*Underneath our pride there is the sense,
Almost like a wound, of something past,
In which we shared the joys of innocence,*

The beauty of a time that cannot last.

*Open vistas lie before our eyes;
Now is the time for hopes and for goodbyes.*

No looking back to Stillwater High.

The Competitor's Creed

The contest lasts for moments though the training's taken years.

It wasn't the winning alone that was worth the work and tears.

The applause will be forgotten, the prize misplaced.

But the long, hard hours of practice will never be a waste!

*For in trying to win you build a skill;
you learn that winning depends on will.*

You never grow by how much you win, you only grow by how much you put in.

So in any new challenge you've just begun, put forth your best and you've already won!

Friendships Through the Years

*Four of the best years of my life,
Four years of joy and strife.
Four years with great coaches,
And now it's time to pass the torches.
We've been pushed to our limits,
Didn't listen to the gimmicks.
Forced to prove ourselves,
Made to find ourselves.
These times are changing,
Emotions left us hanging.
Not sure where to go,
Not sure what to do.*

*The one thing I hope you see,
You can always come to me,
We have taken on a responsibility,
We must be the pride of our town.*
